INFLATION '60 ISSUE-IKE

Louisiana Politicians Now Flocking To Side of Trouble-Laden Governor

COVINGTON, La. (AP)—Louisiana politicians hurried today into this piney woods town where Gov. Earl K. Long—beset by divorce, income tax and health problems—is busy running for re-election.

They moved in and out of his motel room like worker ants, some on the business of running state government, some seeking a spot on the Long ticket, others merely expressing friendship.

The parade of politicians formed a part of one of the strangest rest cures in history. Gov. Long, 63 and ill, made scores of telephone calls as visitors came and went.

Although physicians say Gov. Long has suffered a series of mild strokes, Louisiana's chief executive continued his mad pace after midnight. A few minutes after state police set up an oxygen tank in his room, Gov. Long bellowed so loud during a telephone talk he could be heard outside his room.

Long himself ordered the oxygen. His doctor was out eating. The governor has an asthmatic condition that is helped by oxygen.

Forty minutes after midnight, Gov. Long climbed into his limousine for a five-mile drive to an all-night restaurant.

"Turn on the air," he told his driver, who flipped on the air conditioning.

Gov. Long apparently still toyed with the idea of going either to Tucson or Phoenix, Ariz., for two weeks. It seemed certain there would be no rest if he stays home.

This would make Lt. Gov. Lether Frazar acting governor.

On May 30, mental hospital orderlies and some politicians lashed Long to a stretcher and flew him to John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, Tex.

The governor filed suit for divorce from his wife June 18 while he was still in a state mental hospital. He said he would have divorced her long ago were he not in politics.

Mrs. Long, who had been out of state at a secret hideaway more than a week, came back quietly Tuesday and filed a counter-suit, claiming he threatened to kill her in a rage May 28 before she sent him to a Galveston, Tex., mental clinic, she asked $2,500 a month alimony.

An attorney for Mrs. Long later indicated the temporary alimony plea was left in the suit inadvertently. He added he would amend the petition to remove the request.

Adding to the governor's woes, federal agents investigating his income checked the bank safety deposit box of his public relations adviser who said what they found "wasn't much."

Ohio Assembly Solves State's Money Problem

Sales Tax Now Paid At 31-Cent Level; Opposition Collapses

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio started a new two-year bookkeeping period today with its money woes solved.

But so far as the man in the street is concerned, the only difference between today and Tuesday is that he finds himself paying a penny sales tax on purchases from 31 to 40 cents, inclusive. Until today, they were exempt from the tax.

The months - long battle over state finances and taxes came to an unexpected halt late Tuesday in the Ohio Legislature. Instead of engaging in a day-long fireworks display, the lawmakers docilely completed legislative action on both the record $1,484,000,000 budget bill for the next two years and on the 33-million-dollar omnibus sales tax bill.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, the man behind the torrid drive to put the state's finances on an even keel, signed both bills before the fiscal biennium started at midnight.

The collapse of the money battle came as legislative leaders agreed to a never-before-used device of making what might be called "if-come"—or conditional — appropriations in the pending additions-and-betterments (A & B) bill—the money measure which finances construction of new state buildings.

Gov. DiSalle conceded to newsmen this was the "gimmick" he had hinted last week as a possible way out of a financial dilemma.

The dilemma was this: The Legislature voted only 190 million dollars in new general fund taxes instead of the 237 millions DiSalle had asked. According to his figures, that left anticipated revenue 47 millions below the amount he estimated is needed to meet the state's needs.

The near-100-million-dollar A & B bill included a 40-million appropriation from the general revenue fund. The rest comes from a 150-million-dollar bond issue voted by the people several years ago.

DiSalle came up with the idea of a conditional appropriation. This would permit the controlling board to release funds for projects if it becomes available.

President Plans Payments on National Debt

Chief Insists Federal Budget To Balance In New Fiscal Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the matter of inflation will be one of the main issues of the 1960 presidential campaign.

The President also told a news conference that he not only looks for a balanced budget in the new fiscal year starting today—he expects a start on paying off the 286-billion-dollar national debt.

And, he said, he believes the Democratic - controlled Congress also expects the administration to start paying off the debt during the next 12 months.

He noted that Congress has just approved legislation — which he signed Tuesday — providing for a new permanent debt ceiling of 285 billion dollars.

The legislation also sets a temporary limit of 295 billion.

Final figures have not been released on the government's deficit in the fiscal year which has just closed. But it is in the neighborhood of of 13 billion dollars.

Eisenhower was asked whether he believes inflation will be the main issue in next year's presidential campaign. He replied it certainly will be one of the principal issues.

Then he added that he had thought this in the 1958 elections, but the outcome of the congressional campaign did not lead him to believe the people were as greatly concerned as he had expected.

Eisenhower, in reply to a question, said he had no knowledge of any confidential government report predicting a three per cent increase in the consumers price index in 1960.

Today is the 43rd wedding anniversary of the President and Mrs. Eisenhower. Despite the sweltering heat, Eisenhower turned up for the news conference wearing a vest with his gray business suit.

The first question brought a big smile to his face. It was a request that he set forth his formula for 43 years of successful marriage.

To a round of laughter, Eisenhower replied that he really has no formula. His marriage, he smiled, has been a very happy experience. Then he added that a successful marriage gets happier as the years go by.

In the course of the news conference, the President touched on these other topics:

SUMMIT—He still believes there is no point in his going to a summit conference unless there is adequate preparation in advance by what he called the legitimate diplomatic agencies of government.

That was an allusion to the Big Four foreign ministers who will resume talks in Geneva July 13, picking up at that point after six recent weeks of fruitless negotiations.

Stoutsville School Hassle Continues

As of 1 p. m. today the Fairfield County Board of Education had failed to notify the Pickaway County Board of Education of the transferral of the Clearcreek Local School District (Stoutsville) to the Logan Elm School District.

The Fairfield Board has until midnight to comply with state statute requiring the board to transfer the territory after a majority of its voters approved such transfer.

The neighboring county board of education earlier in the year notified the local county board that it was not going to transfer the territory due to a technicality on the transferral issue ballot.

The Fairfield Board claimed that the November 1958 election was not duly and legally constituted.

* * *

IT WAS REFERRING to what it termed "false and misleading representation of the issue on the ballot" which stated that the transfer was subject to the acceptance by the Clearcreek Board of Education.

The Clearcreek Board voted 3-2 against consolidation with Logan Elm. The voters of the district decided in the 1958 election to merge with Logan Elm by a vote of 338 to 226 for a 55.9 per cent majority in favor of transferring out of Fairfield County.

If the Stoutsville Citizens Committee for Consolidation's attorney, Joseph Asher, Columbus, goes ahead with his plans in the event the transfer isn't made today, then the Ohio Supreme Court may have to decide.

Asher stated recently that if the territory isn't transferred on July 1, he will initiate a writ of mandamus ordering the Board to do so.

Asher said he will file the writ in either the Fairfield County Common Pleas Court or more probably with the State Supreme Court, which also has jurisdiction.

According to state law, when voters of a district decide by a majority vote to enter another school district, it is mandatory upon both the local and county board of education to approve such transfer.

Asher stated he believes the Clearcreek transferral ballot was valid, doesn't believe the voters of Clearcreek Twp. were misled by the printed matter on the ballot and that the Fairfield Board was arguing on a "mere" technicality.

Local school officials feel the Fairfield Board will hold to its threat and will not transfer the territory.

They also feel that the State Board of Education's stand of "hands off, it's a local district problem", is a poor way in which the state's ruling board should act in this situation.

* * *

THEY CLAIM the state board should back up the state statutes which it had a hand in making and is supposed to enforce.

Some have stated that if the board would assert its rightful authority and order local and county boards to follow state law, many "touchy" school controversies would be avoided, such as the Stoutsville situation.

Woman's Body Is Recovered After 4 Years

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — Authorities have recovered the badly decomposed body of a woman from the watery grave where she apparently has been lying four years.

The body was in the back seat of a car which was hauled out of seven feet of water in an abandoned gravel quarry near here Tuesday night.

Some boys made the grisly find while swimming in the quarry.

When sheriff's deputies got the car pulled onto dry land, they noticed it had 1955 Ohio license plates. There also were some identification cards inside, water-soaked but still legible, bearing the name of Juanita Brooks of Dayton. Her 1955 driver's license was among the papers.

Deputy Sheriff Richard Clark said he was informed by Dayton police that Juanita Clark is on their missing persons list, and that she had been sought since 1952, when she was 39 years old. Further checking will be needed to determine if she is the dead woman.

Mother To Compete Against Daughters In Airplane Race

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — A Wilmington, Ohio, mother will be competing against her two daughters in the 13th annual Powder Puff Derby—an airplane race between here and Spokane, Wash., for women pilots.

The 64 planes entered are scheduled to take off at 9 a.m. Saturday in the 2,470-mile coast-to-coast jaunt.

In one craft will be Mrs. Margaret Callaway of Wilmington, wife of Lt. Col. Richard D. Callaway, deputy commander of the 249th Air Reserve Training Corps in Ohio. Mrs. Callaway, with 3,500 hours of flying time, will have as co-pilot her niece, Helen Herd, 17, Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Callaway's two daughters, Sandra, 19, and Margo, 17, will team up in another plane. Margo will be pilot and Sandra co-pilot.

Luebke Named German Chief

Ag Minister Selected As New President

BERLIN (AP)—Heinrich Luebke, 64, agriculture minister, was elected president of West Germany today.

Luebke was the candidate of Chancellor Konard Adenauer's Christian Democratic party.

He defeated Carlo Schmid, the Socialist candidate, and Max Becker, who was the choice of the Liberal Free Democratic party.

Luebke, little known outside farming and political circles, was a last-minute choice of the ruling Christian Democratic party at Adenauer's insistence. A threatened revolt among the party rank and file against the chancellor's dictatorship faded as the voting time approached.

The Soviet Union and Communist East Germany called the holding of the presidential election in West Berlin a hostile act. Neither appeared ready to carry their protest beyond words.

The East Germans claim all Berlin and challenge the right of the West German government to hold a political gathering even in the Western sector. The West Germans hold that Berlin is the proper capital of a unified Germany.

President Theodor Heuss was elected in West Berlin for his second five-year term in 1954. He is ineligible to seek a third term.

This year is the first time a fight has developed over the presidency a ceremonial, figurehead post.

The Electoral College is made up of the 519 members of the Bundestag, the lower house of Parliament, and an equal number chosen by the 10 state parliaments.

For a candidate to win on the first or second ballot he must get the support of one more than half the delegates—or 520 votes. If the election goes to a third ballot, the candidate with the most votes wins.

Strike End Ordered

NEW YORK (AP) —The United Steelworkers Union today ordered an immediate end to scattered wildcat strikes which erupted Tuesday night and today, idling more than 20,000 of the industry half million workers.

Weatherman Predicts Slight Dip in Mercury Tomorrow

The weatherman today predicted cooler temperatures tomorrow, but not much cooler. Temperatures will hit 86 degrees Thursday, he said.

The cooler temperatures will be a welcome relief to county residents, especially since yesterday's 96 degrees set a new 1959 record for the area.

Pickaway County led the state in high temperatures for the third straight day, starting Sunday with a high of 95, Monday's 95 and yesterday's 96.

Scattered thundershowers are predicted to fall tonight and bring relief, not only to humid residents, but to near drought stricken farmers.

* * *

THE MONTHLY rainfall is 2.11 inches behind the average monthly rainfall and 3.48 inches behind the average yearly precipitation.

Local farmers have been combining almost around the clock and the dry spell has nearly eliminated the necessity of using driers in which to bring their wheat test down to grain buyers requirements.

Yesterday was the fifth straight day without rain. The last rainfall descended Sunday with 0.04 of an inch. Before that, the area had dry spells of eight and 10 days.

Today Ervin Leist, city utilities manager, reported that the city water department pumped a new record total during June. Seventeen days during the month the department topped 1,000,000 gallons.

Average daily water consumption during June was 1,041,000 gallons, he reported. Yesterday's total was just 31,000 gallons short of Monday's all-time record high.

Leist said the system is still plagued by red water — rust "scoured from the pipes due to high consumption. Most of the complaints today, Leist said, are from outlying areas.

Freight Car Explosion Takes Its 20th Life

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — The death toll from Sunday's freight train explosion on the Ogeechee River stands at 20.

The explosion occurred at a recreational area near Meldrim. Still at issue was whether the train derailed and caused the explosion or the butane cars exploded and caused the derailment.

Israel OKs Sale of Arms To Germany

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—Parliament today approved Israeli arms sales to West Germany despite opposition of two parties inside the government coalition.

Fifty-seven deputies approved a motion by Premier David Ben-Gurion against cancellation of the contract. Forty-five voted against with six abstentions.

Despite Parliament's approval of his course in selling arms to an old enemy, Ben-Gurion is expected to resign and clear the way for his formation of a new Cabinet with the two parties excluded.

The two parties that fought the arms deal refused to live up to a 1957 pledge to support all Cabinet decisions or quit the four-party coalition cabinet.

They are the left-wing Achduth Avodah (Unity of Labor) and Mapam (United Workers).

An official source said later that there was "reason to believe that Ben-Gurion will not resign within the next few days." He did not elaborate.

Achduth Avodah and Mapam ministers had refused to quit the Cabinet on the ground that the government's agreement to sell 250,000 grenade launchers to West Germany was unconstitutional.

Moshe Carmel, an Achduth Avodah minister, told Parliament the arms agreement violated its 1954 resolution opposing the rearmament of West Germany.

You're Taller And Heavier, But Not Much

WASHINGTON (AP) —Every American is a little heavier and a little taller today than Tuesday. Every Englishman is a little lighter and a little shorter.

This all comes about because, effective at midnight Tuesday six English-speaking nations adopted new, standard definitions for the pound and inch.

The changes from the old definitions are so slight they can't be measured on any bathroom scale or yardstick. They are important, though, in certain technical fields of manufacturing and research which use more accurate measuring devices.

For the American who Tuesday weighed exactly 150 pounds, the change in the pound adds 1-300 of an ounce to his weight.

An American who was exactly six feet tall is now approximately 1-8,000 of an inch taller.

Canadians also are taller and heavier because, until today, they used a longer inch and a heavier pound than the new standard measures. However, residents of the four other countries involved are shorter and lighter. The four — Great Britain, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand—had been using a shorter inch and a lighter pound.

Southern Ohio Still Swelters

Relief Is in Sight Weatherman Repeats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Central and southern Ohio counties continued to swelter for the sixth consecutive day Wednesday, with even hotter temperatures predicted by the Weather Bureau. Some relief is in sight, however.

Those areas had been promised some relief in earlier forecasts, but a cold front which had moved over the northern part of the state failed to go southward as expected.

The northern sections had a noticeable change Tuesday as temperatures dropped to the 70s near Lake Erie and skidded into the low 60s overnight.

The weather map is shaping up favorably to break the heat wave by Thursday. A low pressure area near Chicago this morning is traveling rapidly eastward. A cold front trailing this low should move over the state tonight and early Thursday to bring cool northerly winds.

The Weather Bureau said showers and scattered thunderstorms are indicated before the cool air arrives. Temperatures this morning ranged from 64 at Toledo to 80 at Piketon. Cincinnati had 74, Columbus 72 and Cleveland 68.

3 Youths Killed Testing New Auto

CHARDON, Ohio (AP) — Three Canton youths, out to break in a new automobile belonging to the parents of one of them, were killed Tuesday when the car was hit by a coal truck on U.S. 422 about two miles west of Parkman.

Dead are Frank L. Low, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Low, driver of the car; Bruce Goff, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Goff, and David Rhiel, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rhiel.

The State Highway Patrol said Low, going north on Mumford Road, failed to halt for a stop sign and the car was hit by the truck, which was southbound on U.S. 422.

Rash of Strikes Plagues Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A rash of strikes involving thousands of workers, mainly in the steel, aircraft, chemical and electrical industries, broke out over the nation today.

Wildcat strikes erupted in the steel industry as negotiators resumed meetings in New York in an effort to agree on a new contract between the major steel companies and the United Steelworkers Union.

The steel union ordered an immediate end to these walkouts.

Walkouts in the steel industry included these:

In Aliquippa, Pa., pickets kept about 13,000 production workers away from their jobs at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. plant. Plant and union officials said the strike was unauthorized. Pickets carried placards proclaiming, "No Contract—No Work."

Contracts covering the basic steel industry expired Tuesday midnight but union and company negotiators working on a national contract agreed earlier to extend the agreements to July 14.

Some 2,700 day workers remained off the job at Republic Steel Corp.'s Independence Road plant in Cleveland and two open hearths were shut down. The plant employs 9,300 on a three-shift basis. A company spokesman said the plant would be shut down if second and third shift workers stay away from their jobs.

Another 7,000 steelworkers were out at U.S. Steel Corp.'s huge Fairless Works near Philadelphia. The plant was shut down.

On the Great Lakes, some 3,700 unlicensed seamen affiliated with the steelworkrs union began leaving their jobs on ore carriers. The carriers, mostly steel-company owned, transport raw materials to steel plants.

The seamen's strike was called by Local 5000 of the USW from its Cleveland headquarters. Officials of the local said they are not parties to the agreement to extend the steel contract. The agreement covering seamen also expired Tuesday midnight.

In Indiana more than 1,400 members of the international Brotherhood of Electrical Workers struck the Public Service Co. of Indiana, biggest electrical utility in the state. The company, serving 360,000 customers in the southern two-thirds of the state, said there would be no interruption of power.

A union spokesman blamed the utility strike on refusal of the company to arbitrate union demands. The old contract expired May 1.

Some 2,500 production and maintenance workers at Cessna Aircraft Co. in Wichita, Kan., left their jobs after a contract between the company and the International Assn. of Machinists expired. The walkout occurred in the midst of negotiations for a new contract.

In Texas City, Tex., members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union quit work at the American Oil Co. refinery after negotiations for a new contract broke down.

Another Texas strike involved some 500 truck drivers in Houston who deliver about 95 per cent of the city's bread.

In St. Louis, four major barge lines suspended all operations after failing to reach an agreement with the National Maritime Union and the Masters, Mates and Pilots. Company spokesmen said the union refused a management proposal to extend the contract, which expired at midnight Tuesday for four months.

The shutdown idled about 1,000 barge workers. Management representatives said they had no alternative except to suspend operations.

Louisiana Politicians Now Flocking To Side of Trouble-Laden Governor

COVINGTON, La. (AP)—Louisiana politicians hurried today into this piney woods town where Gov. Earl K. Long—beset by divorce, income tax and health problems—is busy running for re-election.

Forty minutes after midnight, Gov. Long climbed into his limousine for a five-mile drive to an all-night restaurant.

"Turn on the air," he told his driver, who flipped on the air conditioning.

Gov. Long apparently still toyed with the idea of going either to Tucson or Phoenix, Ariz., for two weeks. It seemed certain there would be no rest if he stays home.

This would make Lt. Gov. Lether Frazar acting governor.

On May 30, mental hospital orderlies and some politicians lashed Long to a stretcher and flew him to John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, Tex.

The governor filed suit for divorce from his wife June 18 while he was still in a state mental hospital. He said he would have divorced her long ago were he not in politics.

Mrs. Long, who had been out of state at a secret hideaway more than a week, came back quietly Tuesday and filed a counter-suit, claiming he threatened to kill her in a rage May 28 before she sent him to a Galveston, Tex., mental clinic, she asked $2,500 a month alimony.

An attorney for Mrs. Long later indicated the temporary alimony plea was left in the suit inadvertently. He added he would amend the petition to remove the request.

Adding to the governor's woes, federal agents investigating his income checked the bank safety deposit box of his public relations adviser who said what they found "wasn't much."

Stoutsville School Hassle Continues

As of 1 p. m. today the Fairfield County Board of Education had failed to notify the Pickaway County Board of Education of the transferral of the Clearcreek Local School District (Stoutsville) to the Logan Elm School District.

The Fairfield Board has until midnight to comply with state statute requiring the board to transfer the territory after a majority of its voters approved such transfer.

The neighboring county board of education earlier in the year notified the local county board that it was not going to transfer the territory due to a technicality on the transferral issue ballot.

The Fairfield Board claimed that the November 1958 election was not duly and legally constituted.

* * *

IT WAS REFERRING to what it termed "false and misleading representation of the issue on the ballot" which stated that the transfer was subject to the acceptance by the Clearcreek Board of Education.

The Clearcreek Board voted 3-2 against consolidation with Logan Elm. The voters of the district decided in the 1958 election to merge with Logan Elm by a vote of 338 to 226 for a 55.9 per cent majority in favor of transferring out of Fairfield County.

If the Stoutsville Citizens Committee for Consolidation's attorney, Joseph Asher, Columbus, goes ahead with his plans in the event the transfer isn't made today, then the Ohio Supreme Court may have to decide.

Asher stated recently that if the territory isn't transferred on July 1, he will initiate a writ of mandamus ordering the Board to do so.

Asher said he will file the writ in either the Fairfield County Common Pleas Court or more probably with the State Supreme Court, which also has jurisdiction.

According to state law, when voters of a district decide by a majority vote to enter another school district, it is mandatory upon both the local and county board of education to approve such transfer.

Asher stated he believes the Clearcreek transferral ballot was valid, doesn't believe the voters of Clearcreek Twp. were misled by the printed matter on the ballot and that the Fairfield Board was arguing on a "mere" technicality.

Local school officials feel the Fairfield Board will hold to its threat and will not transfer the territory.

They also feel that the State Board of Education's stand of "hands off, it's a local district problem", is a poor way in which the state's ruling board should act in this situation.

* * *

THEY CLAIM the state board should back up the state statutes which it had a hand in making and is supposed to enforce.

Some have stated that if the board would assert its rightful authority and order local and county boards to follow state law, many "touchy" school controversies would be avoided, such as the Stoutsville situation.

Woman's Body Is Recovered After 4 Years

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — Authorities have recovered the badly decomposed body of a woman from the watery grave where she apparently has been lying four years.

The body was in the back seat of a car which was hauled out of seven feet of water in an abandoned gravel quarry near here Tuesday night.

Some boys made the grisly find while swimming in the quarry.

When sheriff's deputies got the car pulled onto dry land, they noticed it had 1955 Ohio license plates. There also were some identification cards inside, water-soaked but still legible, bearing the name of Juanita Brooks of Dayton. Her 1955 driver's license was among the papers.

Deputy Sheriff Richard Clark said he was informed by Dayton police that Juanita Clark is on their missing persons list, and that she had been sought since 1952, when she was 39 years old. Further checking will be needed to determine if she is the dead woman.

Mother To Compete Against Daughters In Airplane Race

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — A Wilmington, Ohio, mother will be competing against her two daughters in the 13th annual Powder Puff Derby—an airplane race between here and Spokane, Wash., for women pilots.

The 64 planes entered are scheduled to take off at 9 a.m. Saturday in the 2,470-mile coast-to-coast jaunt.

In one craft will be Mrs. Margaret Callaway of Wilmington, wife of Lt. Col. Richard D. Callaway, deputy commander of the 249th Air Reserve Training Corps in Ohio. Mrs. Callaway, with 3,500 hours of flying time, will have as co-pilot her niece, Helen Herd, 17, Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Callaway's two daughters, Sandra, 19, and Margo, 17, will team up in another plane. Margo will be pilot and Sandra co-pilot.

Luebke Named German Chief

Ag Minister Selected As New President

BERLIN (AP)—Heinrich Luebke, 64, agriculture minister, was elected president of West Germany today.

Luebke was the candidate of Chancellor Konard Adenauer's Christian Democratic party.

He defeated Carlo Schmid, the Socialist candidate, and Max Becker, who was the choice of the Liberal Free Democratic party.

Luebke, little known outside farming and political circles, was a last-minute choice of the ruling Christian Democratic party at Adenauer's insistence. A threatened revolt among the party rank and file against the chancellor's dictatorship faded as the voting time approached.

The Soviet Union and Communist East Germany called the holding of the presidential election in West Berlin a hostile act. Neither appeared ready to carry their protest beyond words.

The East Germans claim all Berlin and challenge the right of the West German government to hold a political gathering even in the Western sector. The West Germans hold that Berlin is the proper capital of a unified Germany.

President Theodor Heuss was elected in West Berlin for his second five-year term in 1954. He is ineligible to seek a third term.

This year is the first time a fight has developed over the presidency a ceremonial, figurehead post.

The Electoral College is made up of the 519 members of the Bundestag, the lower house of Parliament, and an equal number chosen by the 10 state parliaments.

For a candidate to win on the first or second ballot he must get the support of one more than half the delegates—or 520 votes. If the election goes to a third ballot, the candidate with the most votes wins.

Strike End Ordered

NEW YORK (AP) —The United Steelworkers Union today ordered an immediate end to scattered wildcat strikes which erupted Tuesday night and today, idling more than 20,000 of the industry half million workers.

Weatherman Predicts Slight Dip in Mercury Tomorrow

The weatherman today predicted cooler temperatures tomorrow, but not much cooler. Temperatures will hit 86 degrees Thursday, he said.

The cooler temperatures will be a welcome relief to county residents, especially since yesterday's 96 degrees set a new 1959 record for the area.

Pickaway County led the state in high temperatures for the third straight day, starting Sunday with a high of 95, Monday's 95 and yesterday's 96.

Scattered thundershowers are predicted to fall tonight and bring relief, not only to humid residents, but to near drought stricken farmers.

* * *

THE MONTHLY rainfall is 2.11 inches behind the average monthly rainfall and 3.48 inches behind the average yearly precipitation.

Local farmers have been combining almost around the clock and the dry spell has nearly eliminated the necessity of using driers in which to bring their wheat test down to grain buyers requirements.

Yesterday was the fifth straight day without rain. The last rainfall descended Sunday with 0.04 of an inch. Before that, the area had dry spells of eight and 10 days.

Today Ervin Leist, city utilities manager, reported that the city water department pumped a new record total during June. Seventeen days during the month the department topped 1,000,000 gallons.

Average daily water consumption during June was 1,041,000 gallons, he reported. Yesterday's total was just 31,000 gallons short of Monday's all-time record high.

Leist said the system is still plagued by red water — rust "scoured from the pipes due to high consumption. Most of the complaints today, Leist said, are from outlying areas.

Israel OKs Sale of Arms To Germany

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—Parliament today approved Israeli arms sales to West Germany despite opposition of two parties inside the government coalition.

Fifty-seven deputies approved a motion by Premier David Ben-Gurion against cancellation of the contract. Forty-five voted against with six abstentions.

Despite Parliament's approval of his course in selling arms to an old enemy, Ben-Gurion is expected to resign and clear the way for his formation of a new Cabinet with the two parties excluded.

The two parties that fought the arms deal refused to live up to a 1957 pledge to support all Cabinet decisions or quit the four-party coalition cabinet.

They are the left-wing Achduth Avodah (Unity of Labor) and Mapam (United Workers).

An official source said later that there was "reason to believe that Ben-Gurion will not resign within the next few days." He did not elaborate.

Achduth Avodah and Mapam ministers had refused to quit the Cabinet on the ground that the government's agreement to sell 250,000 grenade launchers to West Germany was unconstitutional.

Moshe Carmel, an Achduth Avodah minister, told Parliament the arms agreement violated its 1954 resolution opposing the rearmament of West Germany.

Freight Car Explosion Takes Its 20th Life

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — The death toll from Sunday's freight train explosion on the Ogeechee River stands at 20.

The explosion occurred at a recreational area near Meldrim. Still at issue was whether the train derailed and caused the explosion or the butane cars exploded and caused the derailment.

Southern Ohio Still Swelters

Relief Is in Sight Weatherman Repeats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Central and southern Ohio counties continued to swelter for the sixth consecutive day Wednesday, with even hotter temperatures predicted by the Weather Bureau. Some relief is in sight, however.

Those areas had been promised some relief in earlier forecasts, but a cold front which had moved over the northern part of the state failed to go southward as expected.

The northern sections had a noticeable change Tuesday as temperatures dropped to the 70s near Lake Erie and skidded into the low 60s overnight.

The weather map is shaping up favorably to break the heat wave by Thursday. A low pressure area near Chicago this morning is traveling rapidly eastward. A cold front trailing this low should move over the state tonight and early Thursday to bring cool northerly winds.

The Weather Bureau said showers and scattered thunderstorms are indicated before the cool air arrives. Temperatures this morning ranged from 64 at Toledo to 80 at Piketon. Cincinnati had 74, Columbus 72 and Cleveland 68.

3 Youths Killed Testing New Auto

CHARDON, Ohio (AP) — Three Canton youths, out to break in a new automobile belonging to the parents of one of them, were killed Tuesday when the car was hit by a coal truck on U.S. 422 about two miles west of Parkman.

Dead are Frank L. Low, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Low, driver of the car; Bruce Goff, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Goff, and David Rhiel, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rhiel.

The State Highway Patrol said Low, going north on Mumford Road, failed to halt for a stop sign and the car was hit by the truck, which was southbound on U.S. 422.

You're Taller And Heavier, But Not Much

WASHINGTON (AP) —Every American is a little heavier and a little taller today than Tuesday. Every Englishman is a little lighter and a little shorter.

This all comes about because, effective at midnight Tuesday six English-speaking nations adopted new, standard definitions for the pound and inch.

The changes from the old definitions are so slight they can't be measured on any bathroom scale or yardstick. They are important, though, in certain technical fields of manufacturing and research which use more accurate measuring devices.

For the American who Tuesday weighed exactly 150 pounds, the change in the pound adds 1-300 of an ounce to his weight.

An American who was exactly six feet tall is now approximately 1-8,000 of an inch taller.

Canadians also are taller and heavier because, until today, they used a longer inch and a heavier pound than the new standard measures. However, residents of the four other countries involved are shorter and lighter. The four — Great Britain, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand—had been using a shorter inch and a lighter pound.

Rash of Strikes Plagues Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A rash of strikes involving thousands of workers, mainly in the steel, aircraft, chemical and electrical industries, broke out over the nation today.

Wildcat strikes erupted in the steel industry as negotiators resumed meetings in New York in an effort to agree on a new contract between the major steel companies and the United Steelworkers Union.

The steel union ordered an immediate end to these walkouts.

Walkouts in the steel industry included these:

In Aliquippa, Pa., pickets kept about 13,000 production workers away from their jobs at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. plant. Plant and union officials said the strike was unauthorized. Pickets carried placards proclaiming, "No Contract—No Work."

Contracts covering the basic steel industry expired Tuesday midnight but union and company negotiators working on a national contract agreed earlier to extend the agreements to July 14.

Some 2,700 day workers remained off the job at Republic Steel Corp.'s Independence Road plant in Cleveland and two open hearths were shut down. The plant employs 9,300 on a three-shift basis. A company spokesman said the plant would be shut down if second and third shift workers stay away from their jobs.

Another 7,000 steelworkers were out at U.S. Steel Corp.'s huge Fairless Works near Philadelphia. The plant was shut down.

On the Great Lakes, some 3,700 unlicensed seamen affiliated with the steelworkrs union began leaving their jobs on ore carriers. The carriers, mostly steel-company owned, transport raw materials to steel plants.

The seamen's strike was called by Local 5000 of the USW from its Cleveland headquarters. Officials of the local said they are not parties to the agreement to extend the steel contract. The agreement covering seamen also expired Tuesday midnight.

In Indiana more than 1,400 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers struck the Public Service Co. of Indiana, biggest electrical utility in the state. The company, serving 360,000 customers in the southern two-thirds of the state, said there would be no interruption of power.

A union spokesman blamed the utility strike on refusal of the company to arbitrate union demands. The old contract expired May 1.

Some 2,500 production and maintenance workers at Cessna Aircraft Co. in Wichita, Kan., left their jobs after a contract between the company and the International Assn. of Machinists expired. The walkout occurred in the midst of negotiations for a new contract.

In Texas City, Tex., members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union quit work at the American Oil Co. refinery after negotiations for a new contract broke down.

Another Texas strike involved some 500 truck drivers in Houston who deliver about 95 per cent of the city's bread.

In St. Louis, four major barge lines suspended all operations after failing to reach an agreement with the National Maritime Union and the Masters, Mates and Pilots. Company spokesmen said the union refused a management proposal to extend the contract, which expired at midnight Tuesday for four months.

The shutdown idled about 1,000 barge workers. Management representatives said they had no alternative except to suspend operations.

U.S. Judge Orders Arrest Of Dave Beck

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Teamster boss Dave Beck failed to show up today for pleading to charges that he accepted $200,000 from two truck firm executives while he was union chief. A federal judge immediately issued a warrant for his arrest.

When Beck's case was called in the court of Judge Gregory F. Noonan, neither the defendant nor his lawyer replied.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Donald Shaw then told the court that the case had been delayed from last week until today at the request of Beck's Seattle lawyer.

Shaw suggested that no action be taken at the time, but that Beck and the lawyer be given another chance to show up later in the day. If they did not appear then, he said, a warrant could be issued.

However, Judge Noonan's face flushed and he snapped:

"Oh, no. I think a warrant should be issued right now. He is not going to play footsie with us.

"I think if he does not have the sense to come in when notified he should be brought in here by an army if necessary."

Local Blood Supply Low

The local Red Cross Chapter today reported that due to the recent failure of residents of Pickaway County to support the Bloodmobile on its visit to Circleville two emergencies have arisen at Berger Hospital.

Last week Mrs. Jerry Anderson, 412 Stella Ave., was in need of O-positive blood and none was available at the Blood Center. It was necessary to call a special donor to the hospital. Mrs. Bertha Eitel, 517 N. Pickaway St., responded to the call.

On Monday, Mrs. Eleanor Gerhardt, 119 N. Washington St., needed three pints of B-negative blood and only one sent was to be had from the center. It was again necessary to check the files at the Red Cross office and call special donors for the purpose. Mrs. Thelma Noecker, Route 1, Ashville and Jack Gray, 888 N. Court St., made the trip to the hospital and gave blood for this emergency.

All this involves a great amount of work on the part of hospital personnel, chapter volunteers and the donors themselves, the Red Cross said. It need never happen if sufficient quantities of blood are donated at the regular visits of the Bloodmobile.

Chapter officials anticipate many occasions when it may be necessary to recruit special donors unless there is wholehearted response to the next Bloodmobile operation on July 23 at the Methodist Church.

Courthouse To Close One Hour Tomorrow

The Pickaway County courthouse will be closed from 2:30 until 3:30 p. m. tomorrow in observance of funeral services for Judge Meeker Terwilliger.

Services will be held at 3 p. m tomorrow in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home with the Rev. Paul I. Wachs, minister of the Methodist Church officiating.

Light Docket Faces Muny Court

One minor traffic case and a bond forfeiture were handled by the Circleville Municipal Court today.

William Allen Sells, 83, of 121 W. Ohio (rear), was fined $10 and costs after being found guilty of failure to yield the right-of-way. He was arrested by City Police.

Charles K. Krell, 51, Ashland, Ky., forfeited a $21.50 bond posted yesterday when arrested by the State Highway Patrol for driving 65 miles an hour in a 50 mile speed zone.

Taxes Reduce Mendelssohn Estate

Executors of the estate of Mrs. Evelyn Dumas Mendelssohn, Detroit social leader and sister of Mrs. C. G. Shulze, 316 S. Court St., have estimated the assets of the estate at about $30,000,000.

Last week they handed the State of Michigan a check for $3,908,082 as the state's share of inheritance taxes. Mrs. Mendelssohn, 83, widow of Louis Mendelssohn one of Detroit's financial giants, died Dec. 29, 1957.

Does a Steer Look Like a Groundhog?

Can a steer be mistaken for a groundhog? This question was raised by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department yesterday when it received a complaint from Mrs. Luther M. LaRue, Route 2.

According to Mrs. LaRue, a steer was found shot to death yesterday. She related to Sheriffs deputies that she believed the steer was shot by groundhog hunters.

Chirper Is Crazy Mixed-Up Chicken

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Chirper is a crazy, mixed-up chicken.

Chickens don't swim. Chirper does.

Chickens don't eat dog food. Chirper does.

Chickens don't chase dogs. But Chirper does.

Lina Lower, 11, who got the rooster when he was a chick four months ago, says Chirper does all those things and then some.

"I sing 'Rock-A-Bye Baby' and he goes to sleep," she explains. "He lies down on his back with his feet up in the air."

Chirper, the Plymouth Rock pet, is all "fowled" up in another way, too. He never crows, says Linda.

Her brother, Larry 9, sums it up in two words: "He's crazy."

potential candidates for the presidential nomination.

Eisenhower added, in response to a question, that while it would be too much to expect him to be neutral regarding a candidate, he definitely never will disclose privately or publicly any choice he might have.

Going on, Eisenhower seemed to qualify that to some extent by saying that he has no intention of ever indicating the procedure to be followed regarding detailed selection of a candidate.

In a related field, Eisenhower stated emphatically that he had no political motives in mind in picking Vice President Richard M. Nixon to represent the United States at the opening of its fair in Moscow later this month.

A reporter told Eisenhower there has been some speculation that he chose Nixon in an effort to give him political advantage over Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Nixon and Rockefeller generally are regarded as the top potential candidates for the GOP presidential nomination.

In reply, Eisenhower noted that his youngest brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, will accompany Nixon. His brother, the President said, certainly has no political ambitions.

The President confirmed reports that Nixon personally asked him to have Milton Eisenhower make the trip. There have been other published reports that Milton was forced on Nixon by the President.

U.S. Judge Orders Arrest Of Dave Beck

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Teamster boss Dave Beck failed to show up today for pleading to charges that he accepted $200,000 from two truck firm executives while he was union chief. A federal judge immediately issued a warrant for his arrest.

When Beck's case was called in the court of Judge Gregory F. Noonan, neither the defendant nor his lawyer replied.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Donald Shaw then told the court that the case had been delayed from last week until today at the request of Beck's Seattle lawyer.

Shaw suggested that no action be taken at the time, but that Beck and the lawyer be given another chance to show up later in the day. If they did not appear then, he said, a warrant could be issued.

However, Judge Noonan's face flushed and he snapped:

"Oh, no. I think a warrant should be issued right now. He is not going to play footsie with us.

"I think if he does not have the sense to come in when notified he should be brought in here by an army if necessary."

Local Blood Supply Low

The local Red Cross Chapter today reported that due to the recent failure of residents of Pickaway County to support the Bloodmobile on its visit to Circleville two emergencies have arisen at Berger Hospital.

Last week Mrs. Jerry Anderson, 412 Stella Ave., was in need of O-positive blood and none was available at the Blood Center. It was necessary to call a special donor to the hospital, Mrs. Bertha Eitel, 517 N. Pickaway St., responded to the call.

On Monday, Mrs. Eleanor Gerhardt, 119 N. Washington St., needed three pints of B-negative blood and only one sent was to be had from the center. It was again necessary to check the files at the Red Cross office and call special donors for the purpose. Mrs. Thelma Noecker, Route 1, Ashville and Jack Gray, 888 N. Court St., made the trip to the hospital and gave blood for this emergency.

All this involves a great amount of work on the part of hospital personnel, chapter volunteers and the donors themselves, the Red Cross said. It need never happen if sufficient quantities of blood are donated at the regular visits of the Bloodmobile.

Chapter officials anticipate many occasions when it may be necessary to recruit special donors unless there is wholehearted response to the next Bloodmobile operation on July 23 at the Methodist Church.

Courthouse To Close One Hour Tomorrow

The Pickaway County courthouse will be closed from 2:30 until 3:30 p. m. tomorrow in observance of funeral services for Judge Meeker Terwilliger.

Judge Terwilliger was County Common Pleas judge from 1938 through 1945. He died Monday in his home at 238 E. Main St.

Services will be held at 3 p. m tomorrow in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home with the Rev. Paul I. Wachs, minister of the Methodist Church officiating.

Light Docket Faces Muny Court

One minor traffic case and a bond forfeiture were handled by the Circleville Municipal Court today.

William Allen Sells, 83, of 121 W. Ohio (rear), was fined $10 and costs after being found guilty of failure to yield the right-of-way. He was arrested by City Police.

Charles K. Krell, 51, Ashland, Ky., forfeited a $21.50 bond posted yesterday when arrested by the State Highway Patrol for driving 65 miles an hour in a 50 mile speed zone.

Taxes Reduce Mendelssohn Estate

Executors of the estate of Mrs. Evelyn Dumas Mendelssohn, Detroit social leader and sister of Mrs. C. G. Shulze, 316 S. Court St., have estimated the assets of the estate at about $30,000,000.

Last week they handed the State of Michigan a check for $3,908,082 as the state's share of inheritance taxes. Mrs. Mendelssohn, 83, widow of Louis Mendelssohn one of Detroit's financial giants, died Dec. 29, 1957.

Does a Steer Look Like a Groundhog?

Can a steer be mistaken for a groundhog? This question was raised by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department yesterday when it received a complaint from Mrs. Luther M. LaRue, Route 2.

According to Mrs. LaRue, a steer was found shot to death yesterday. She related to Sheriffs deputies that she believed the steer was shot by groundhog hunters.

Freedom Needs Responsibility

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these right, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Those few words are the nucleus of our freedom, the sharp rupture with the past which started America on her road to greatness. They are the still radical combination of religious and political philosophy which lies at the root of all the material advantages we enjoy.

Yet, as we approach the 183rd anniversary of our independence, how many persons still hold these truths to be self-evident?

How many do you know, for example, who seem apathetic to the idea of God as Supreme Arbiter, the source of our human rights, whose laws (being incapable of human amendment) are the final shield of independence?

How many appear to have mentally erased the qualifying phrase "pursuit of" from the words above and now assume "happiness" as a right itself to be provided for by government?

How many appear unaware that the price of personal liberty, today as yesterday, is personal responsibility?

How many regard the 4th of July now only in terms of leisure, fireworks and picnics? Think a moment. There are probably several you can mention.

And yet, if it were not for the ideas expressed above, given tangible form by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, we would probably be no better off materially today than people elsewhere in the world.

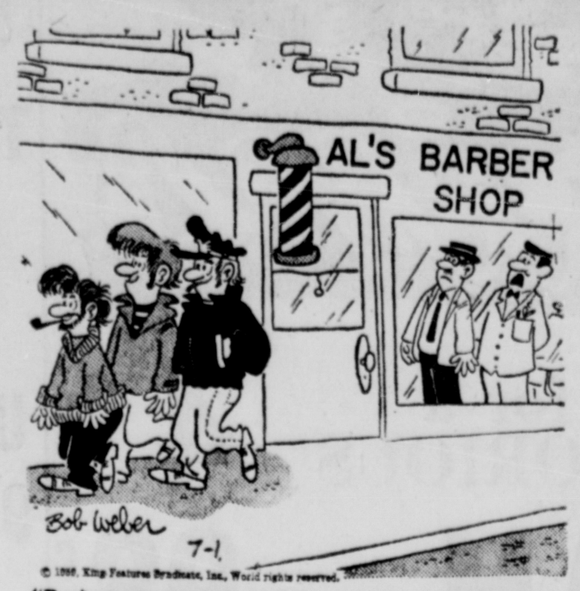

As long as a significant number of people fail to recognize this fact, freedom is in jeopardy.

This 4th of July won't you re-dedicate yourself to freedom?

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Eisenhower has found it a lot tougher to cut government spending than he seemed to think it would be when he was on the outside wanting in.

He set a low spending goal he has never been able to get down to. He promised to balance the budget but has been able to do it only twice since he took office.

Tuesday the government wound up the fiscal year with the biggest budget deficit in peacetime history. It reached almost 13 billion

Back in the 1952 presidential campaign Eisenhower banged away at Democratic spending and promised to do better, a lot better. He promised that if elected the Republican administration would:

"First, provide a sound dollar. A major step is to reduce government spending (from the then rate of 81 billion dollars a year) to something like 60 billion dollars within four years.

"Such a cut would eliminate the deficit in the budget and would make way for a substantial tax reduction."

What has happened since Eisenhower took office in January 1953? This is the story of the budget, starting wit fiscal year 1954 which began July 1, 1953.

For fiscal 1954—budget deficit of $3,100,000; fiscal 1955—budget deficit of $4,200,000,000; fiscal 1956—budget balanced, with $1,600,000,0 to spare; fiscal 1957—budget balanced, again with $1,600,000,000 to the good; fiscal 1958—budget deficit of $2,800,000,000; fiscal 1959, which ended Tuesday—budget deficit of around 13 billions.

In short: Eisen ower managed to balance the budget only twice Never in that time did government spending get down to the 60-billion-dollar figure he talked about in the 1952 campaign.

Nevertheless, in 1954 the Republican-run Congress of that year made good on one of Eisenhower's expressed hopes of the 1952 campaign. It cut taxes.

But the public debt, which was around 271 billion when he first took office, is now around 285 billion. As for the sound dollar Eisenhower spoke of in 1952, it, too, has lost some ground.

The government uses the years 1947-49 as a base period to show changes in living costs and the purchasing value of a dollar. When Eisenhower took office in January 1953 you would have had to spend $1.14 to purchase what a dollar would have bought in 1947-49.

Now you would have to spend $1.24.

But the President has never given up his hope for a balanced budget. He hopes to achieve another in the 1960 fiscal year which started today. He has set a goal —a budget of 77 billion dollars, balanced and with 70 million or more left over.

It will be a tight squeeze, perhaps, but Eisenhower has made a fiscal 1960 balanced budget a personal crusade and is beating the Democratic-run Congress on the head to keep down spending so he can achieve the balance.

TIMID LITTLE WOMAN from Des Moines, whenever she checks into a strange hotel, always locates the fire escape the moment the bellboy has deposited the bags in her room. One day she couldn't find any such exit, and when she had reached the last door at the end of the hall, jerked it open to see where it led. There, majestically seated in the bathtub was a red-faced Englishman with a walrus mustache.

"Pardon me!" exclaimed the timid little woman, flustered beyond belief. "I'm trying to find the fire escape."

She had gotten back as far as the door to her own room, when the Englishman, dripping wet and with a towel ineffectively draped around his middle, came paddling up behind her. "Where," he gasped, "where is the fire?"

Youths Joust the Impossible

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Every year they troop here—the kids with the big hope.

They all have the same goal—to make a name in show business, to carve themselves a niche in the American theater.

They come from every part of the land, from every kind of background. Some are the sons of laborers, some are the spoiled daughters of the wealthy. Some wear the stamped neatness of the Ivy League, some look like the born beatniks they are.

Many of them share a startling lack of talent. All share a single thing—a vision of stardust, a picture of themselves posturing before an applauding world.

Why does anyone set out to be an actor or an actress? What motivates them? I can never decide whether it is blind ignorance, blind courage, or a blind and mystic compulsion they have no control over whatever.

It can't be sheer ignorance, because most of these kids know what the odds against them are. They know many actors are lucky to make $1,000 a year at their craft. They know the average performer doesn't earn a fifth as much as a plumber, a tenth as much as a dentist. Yet each is sure in his heart, for a time anyway, "I'll beat the odds."

There is something magnificent and tremulous in the way these young people smash against the impossible. It is rather like watching massed infantry march, singing, into certain disaster against massed artillery. It inspires you even as it breaks your heart.

In the beginning art is everything with them, and money means nothing. They take all sorts of odd jobs to keep them alive while they wait for "the one break."

Few ever get "That big chance" and even fewer go on to real success. Most of them succumb to these twin eroders of most dreams—time and common sense. They give up and go away.

And the one in a thousand who does come out on top in show business? If he was lonely before, he is now twice as lonely—and three times as fearful.

Success, he finds, is not a perch but a prize fight ring with no real rest between the rounds. Finding "the right role" is now even more terribly important than getting "that big break" used to be.

He can't afford to take a chance. He is a big financial human pie, cut into many pieces—for the producer, his press agent, his manager, his family, the tax collector.

But if you asked him why he doesn't get out of the business, he'd say, "Are your crazy? After what I went through to get here!"

Why does anyone really want to be an actor? Only an actor knows—and he probably couldn't tell you!

Educate Your Appetite

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Are you wrried about your waistline?

If you are too fat you probably eat too much, or at least you eat too many high calorie foods. We discussed this and the probable reasons for it in a recent column.

Now let's concentrate on how you should eat.

First, let's establish your ideal weight. While there can be no hard and fast rules because of variances in physical build, occupations, recreation and the like,the following is a good rule of thumb:

Your best weight was probably what you weighed at the age of 25.

Now the problem is to adhere to that weight despite the obvious distractions each of us experiences every day.

Simply use common sense to educate your appetite. You know the foods that are good for you. Eat them and enjoy them, but don't eat too much of them.

By eating a good breakfast, you won't find yourself so hungry at lunchtime. And by eating oatmeal or cream of wheat, for example, you won't consume the calories you would by eating pastry.

You can learn to eat poached eggs instead of fried eggs.

If you have a cocktail before lunch or supper, omit dessert.

If you like strawberries for dessert, choose a bowl of fresh ones instead of eating them as strawberry shortcake.

If you like chicken — and who doesn't—choose broiled chicken instead of fried chicken or chicken a la king.

These are only a few suggestions. Your own doctor can give you countless others.

Learn to substitute low-calorie foods for the high-calorie variety. It won't be long before you will find it perfectly natural to selet them. What's more, you will prefer them.

An educated appetite merely means that you practice good food habits, you train your diet.

It does not mean that you necessarily have to give up your practice of eating a snack before bedtime. It does mean that the calorie content of this food must be deducted from your other meals.

Weigh yourself once a week. I think you will find this helps keep you calorie-conscious.

Tow Tasks in Foreign Trade

By George Sokolsky

The disruption of world markets by World War II eliminated some of the principal trading countries, Great Britain, Germany and Japan. The United States, in a measure, was able to take advantage of that situation and it became the leading supplier of goods and services in world markets.

To a small degree, Great Britain was able to continue to earn on insurance, but shipping and bank earnings were not available. Japan lost her best market, China, at the end of the war and has never regained it.

It is not reasonable to believe that the great exporting countries of the 19th and early 20th Centuries would not make every possible effort to regain their foreign trade. Without such trade, Great Britain, the Netherlands and Japan must starve and it was assumed, when the Marshall Plan was conceived, that sooner or later a measure of recovery would come to these countries.

Also, it is not reasonable to believe that Soviet Russia would not use her recently gained industrial and political strength to move into foreign markets.

Three blocs of countries are being developed to provide large population, mutually beneficial markets. There are:

1. The European Common Market consisting of six countries — West Germany, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg;

2. The European Free Market consisting of seven countries — Great Britain, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Austria, Switzerland and Portugal;

3. The Soviet Group consisting of 16 countries — Soviet Russia, Red China, Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Albania, Mongolia, Tibet, Rumania, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, East Germany, North Korea and North Vietnam.

Each of these groups has associated nations and groups. For instance, Great Britain has close ties with the Commonwealth countries and Empire Preference Treaties with former British colonies or dominions such as Canada.

The Common Market countries have important colonies or nations accustomed to trade with them, such as Algeria, Morocco, the Belgian Congo or Somaliland. The Soviet bloc is penetrating into the Mediterranean and the East of Asia.

The United States needs to meet this competition and must make important adjustments, particularly adjustment as to prices. Considerable American capital has been exported for investment in many parts of the world, so that some American companies actually participate in these blocs, as British, or West German, or other nationality firms.

While this is a method of remaining in pre-empted foreign markets, it only safeguards capital; it does not make provision for American labor.

Although foreign trade has historically played a minor role in American industry, we now have an expanded manufacturing plant due to war-time necessities and we have an expanded labor force, due to social shifts involving the employment of women and therefore we need to find foreign markets for our goods. Traditionally, our best markets were Great Britain, Canada, Japan and China. We cannot expect too much of Japan or Red China during the next decades.

Japan is suffering from acute competition from Red China in textiles and muck-and-truck trade so important in East Asia. The industrial development of Red China has been grossly exaggerated and most available figures are guesses based either on the exports from Hongkong or on Red Chinese figures which are reliable.

Nevertheless, Japan does face this problem acutely and must increase its trade with North China and Manhcuria to live. It is not impossible that a Red China-Japanese joint trade enterprise will develop. Red China is particularly pushing its trade in the countries of the Indian group with the object of political infiltration.

The point that is being made here and that can no longer be ignored is that the world is closing up. While small nations do manage to continue to have political autonomy, they must join one or the other of these economic groups to have any trade at all. The pressure on the small nations is greater than at any time in modern history.

The United States faces two tasks here:

1. To increase its consuming population either by forming a group of its own, including the remaining countries in Europe and Latin America, or to become allied economically to Great Britain and to become a member of the European Free Market, or to play it alone against the world;

2. To maintain employment levels for its increasing population while lowering prices for goods, particularly export goods.

These are terrifying tasks and require not only first-class mentalities but a stiffened moral fibre among our people.

Few ever get "That big chance" and even fewer go on to real success. Most of them succumb to these twin eroders of most dreams—time and common sense. They give up and go away.

And the one in a thousand who does come out on top in show business? If he was lonely before, he is now twice as lonely—and three times as fearful.

Success, he finds, is not a perch but a prize fight ring with no real rest between the rounds. Finding "the right role" is now even more terribly important than getting "that big break" used to be.

He can't afford to take a chance. He is a big financial human pie, cut into many pieces—for the producer, his press agent, his manager, his family, the tax collector.

But if you asked him why he doesn't get out of the business, he'd say, "Are your crazy? After what I went through to get here!"

Why does anyone really want to be an actor? Only an actor knows—and he probably couldn't tell you!

Educate Your Appetite

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Are you wrried about your waistline?

If you are too fat you probably eat too much, or at least you eat too many high calorie foods. We discussed this and the probable reasons for it in a recent column.

Now let's concentrate on how you should eat.

First, let's establish your ideal weight. While there can be no hard and fast rules because of variances in physical build, occupations, recreation and the like,the following is a good rule of thumb:

Your best weight was probably what you weighed at the age of 25.

Now the problem is to adhere to that weight despite the obvious distractions each of us experiences every day.

Simply use common sense to educate your appetite. You know the foods that are good for you. Eat them and enjoy them, but don't eat too much of them.

By eating a good breakfast, you won't find yourself so hungry at lunchtime. And by eating oatmeal or cream of wheat, for example, you won't consume the calories you would by eating pastry.

You can learn to eat poached eggs instead of fried eggs.

If you have a cocktail before lunch or supper, omit dessert.

If you like strawberries for dessert, choose a bowl of fresh ones instead of eating them as strawberry shortcake.

If you like chicken — and who doesn't—choose broiled chicken instead of fried chicken or chicken a la king.

These are only a few suggestions. Your own doctor can give you countless others.

Learn to substitute low-calorie foods for the high-calorie variety. It won't be long before you will find it perfectly natural to selet them. What's more, you will prefer them.

An educated appetite merely means that you practice good food habits, you train your diet.

It does not mean that you necessarily have to give up your practice of eating a snack before bedtime. It does mean that the calorie content of this food must be deducted from your other meals.

Weigh yourself once a week. I think you will find this helps keep you calorie-conscious.

Woman Bank Teller Bluffs Foolish Thug

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — "I'm not kidding," said the nervous bandit Monday. "Don't be foolish. You'll get yourself into trouble," said the woman bank teller, whose name was not released. Tow Tasks in Foreign Trade

By George Sokolsky

The disruption of world markets by World War II eliminated some of the principal trading countries, Great Britain, Germany and Japan. The United States, in a measure, was able to take advantage of that situation and it became the leading supplier of goods and services in world markets.

To a small degree, Great Britain was able to continue to earn on insurance, but shipping and bank earnings were not available. Japan lost her best market, China, at the end of the war and has never regained it.

It is not reasonable to believe that the great exporting countries of the 19th and early 20th Centuries would not make every possible effort to regain their foreign trade. Without such trade, Great Britain, the Netherlands and Japan must starve and it was assumed, when the Marshall Plan was conceived, that sooner or later a measure of recovery would come to these countries.

Also, it is not reasonable to believe that Soviet Russia would not use her recently gained industrial and political strength to move into foreign markets.

Three blocs of countries are being developed to provide large population, mutually beneficial markets. There are:

1. The European Common Market consisting of six countries — West Germany, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg;

2. The European Free Market consisting of seven countries — Great Britain, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Austria, Switzerland and Portugal;

3. The Soviet Group consisting of 16 countries — Soviet Russia, Red China, Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Albania, Mongolia, Tibet, Rumania, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, East Germany, North Korea and North Vietnam.

Each of these groups has associated nations and groups. For instance, Great Britain has close ties with the Commonwealth countries and Empire Preference Treaties with former British colonies or dominions such as Canada.

The Common Market countries have important colonies or nations accustomed to trade with them, such as Algeria, Morocco, the Belgian Congo or Somaliland. The Soviet bloc is penetrating into the Mediterranean and the East of Asia.

The United States needs to meet this competition and must make important adjustments, particularly adjustment as to prices. Considerable American capital has been exported for investment in many parts of the world, so that some American companies actually participate in these blocs, as British, or West German, or other nationality firms.

While this is a method of remaining in pre-empted foreign markets, it only safeguards capital; it does not make provision for American labor.

Although foreign trade has historically played a minor role in American industry, we now have an expanded manufacturing plant due to war-time necessities and we have an expanded labor force, due to social shifts involving the employment of women and therefore we need to find foreign markets for our goods. Traditionally, our best markets were Great Britain, Canada, Japan and China. We cannot expect too much of Japan or Red China during the next decades.

Japan is suffering from acute competition from Red China in textiles and muck-and-truck trade so important in East Asia. The industrial development of Red China has been grossly exaggerated and most available figures are guesses based either on the exports from Hongkong or on Red Chinese figures which are reliable.

Nevertheless, Japan does face this problem acutely and must increase its trade with North China and Manhcuria to live. It is not impossible that a Red China-Japanese joint trade enterprise will develop. Red China is particularly pushing its trade in the countries of the Indian group with the object of political infiltration.

The point that is being made here and that can no longer be ignored is that the world is closing up. While small nations do manage to continue to have political autonomy, they must join one or the other of these economic groups to have any trade at all. The pressure on the small nations is greater than at any time in modern history.

The United States faces two tasks here:

1. To increase its consuming population either by forming a group of its own, including the remaining countries in Europe and Latin America, or to become allied economically to Great Britain and to become a member of the European Free Market, or to play it alone against the world;

2. To maintain employment levels for its increasing population while lowering prices for goods, particularly export goods.

These are terrifying tasks and require not only first-class mentalities but a stiffened moral fibre among our people.

Death Trial Opens Today In Hamilton

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — The first-degree murder trial of Frank Poindexter, 49, of Cincinnati, charged with the fatal shooting of a Hamilton woman during a robbery at her home, opens today before a three-judge court here.

Butler County Prosecutor Robert L. Marrs, says he will seek the death penalty for Poindexter, who is accused of fatally shooting Mrs. Marie Hires, 47, during a robbery attempt at the Hires home.

The case will be heard by Butler County Common Pleas Judges P. P. Boli and Fred B. Cramer and Hamilton County Common Pleas judge Harson Hoy.

The state claims Poindexter and Hollis Robert Leight, 42, also of Cincinnati, entered the Hires home on the pretense of obtaining estimates for roofing and gutter work from Hires, a roofing contractor.

Before she died, Mrs. Hires told police she became suspicious of the pair and left the room to get a gun. When she returned, she said, she saw one man demanding money and heard shooting.

Mrs. Hires said she shot at Leigh and when the other man shot back she fired again.

Her husband was critically wounded in the abdomen. Mrs. Hires died three days later.

Leigh was captured at the scene. A third man, Samuel A. Decker, 44, of Hamilton, who police say planned the robbery, and Poindexter were captured later. Both Leigh and Decker also have been charged with murder.

Man Is Killed As 2 Blasts Jolt Garage

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—An electrician was burned fatally and four other men were injured late Tuesday in the second explosion within 12 hours at the Central Square Garage in downtown Youngstown.

Sixteen others escaped injury.

Benjamin H. Sherwood, 56, died today in St. Elizabeth Hospital. Burns covered 70 per cent of his body.

Crews were mopping up after an early morning explosion and fire that caused damage estimated at $50,000 when the second blast occurred. It was followed by a flash fire.

Reported in fair condition at the hospital are Carol Goeller, 37, of Youngstown, and Howard Farr, 38, of Canfield, insurance adjustors who were surveying the damage caused by the first blast; William Dietzel, 40, a Youngstown plumber who was repairing damage in the basement, and Harvey Hetrick, 26, of Hubbard, a garage employe.

Fire Chief John R. Lynch said the second explosion was caused by an electric arc which ignited gasoline fumes that had settled in the basement following the morning blast.

Lynch said the first blast apparently resulted when the pilot light of a water heater ignited gasoline fumes escaping from a tank that had been left uncapped after it was filled.

Old method of tonging oysters bruised the shellfish.

Dredger and conveyor belt are lowered onto an oyster reef. OYSTER HARVESTING MECHANIZED—Gus Jurisich, a veteran New Orleans fisherman, has developed an oyster-harvesting vessel with undersea "vacuum cleaners" which harvest oysters many times faster than by hand, clean them thoroughly and rid the shellfish of their enemies. The "cleaners" operate hydraulically. Natural enemies of the bivalve are starfish and oyster drills, snails which bore circular holes in the shells. In the past these tiny murderers have destroyed oysters by the millions. (Central Press)

Old method of tonging oysters bruised the shellfish.

Dredger and conveyor belt are lowered onto an oyster reef.

OYSTER HARVESTING MECHANIZED—Gus Jurisich, a veteran New Orleans fisherman, has developed an oyster-harvesting vessel with undersea "vacuum cleaners" which harvest oysters many times faster than by hand, clean them thoroughly and rid the shellfish of their enemies. The "cleaners" operate hydraulically. Natural enemies of the bivalve are starfish and oyster drills, snails which bore circular holes in the shells. In the past these tiny murderers have destroyed oysters by the millions. (Central Press)

Assembly OKs Conditional Appropriation

The alternative, he told newsmen, was to wipe out all state appropriations for school buses, eliminate all appropriations for equipment at state universities and in the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction, strike out half the appropriation for health care of old-age pensioners and block a salary reclassification for state employes.

He said those item - by - item vetoes—and some other minor ones—would have cut 41½ million dollars out of the general fund budget.

But he chose the conditional appropriation route in the A & B bill instead. The bill is scheduled for a floor vote in the House today.

The 190 millions in general fund taxes voted by the Legislature are in addition to a gasoline tax increase of two cents a gallon for highway construction purposes. The latter tax is estimated to yield 116 millions in the next two years to help finance a 300-million-a-year, pay-as-you-go building program.

As it finally shaped up, this is the revenue - increase program adopted by the Legislature, all of which is now in effect:

	Millions
Cigarette tax increase	46
Corporation tax boost	60
3.2 beer tax increase	7
Sales tax revision	33
Liquor price increases By administrative action	40
Total	190

Included in the governor's original request for 237 million dollars in new general fund revenue was 25 millions for an operating balance. He said such a fund was not needed in recent years when the state had a cash surplus which it could, and did, use as an operating reserve.

The upshot of the tax program which fell short of the DiSalle goal is that, on the basis of present estimates, the operating balance will fall some seven million dollars short of 25 millions.

The much - debated, much-amended sales tax bill, in addition to imposing the penny tax in the 31-40 cent bracket, makes these additional levies at the 3 per cent rate:

On transient hotel and motel lodgings and related services.

On packaged liquor sold in state liquor stores.

On non-farm seeds, ice and nitroglycerine.

Beginning today, sales tax stamp redemptions will be at the rate of two per cent of face value, instead of three per cent.

That, DiSalle figures, in combination with the bill's removal of the tax stamp system on auto sales, will cut stamp redemptions from about five million dollars a year to somewhere between two and three millions.

Traveling Cabin

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Antique collector Hal Clayburne won't be stumped by distance. He moved his 203-year-old log cabin here from Virginia.

The cabin, still sound after a cross-country trip by rail, serves as a rustic home for Clayburne and his family.

Clayburne learned about the old homestead during visits with friends in the Shenandoah Valley. Later, hearing it was about to be razed, he made a hurried trip East.

The San Antonio contractor found the dwelling in a sad state of repairs. Its owner was happy to take $65 for it.

Farm Wife, 76, Blind Mate Fight Off Savage Fox Attack

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—A 76-year-old, ailing farm wife and her blind husband fought off the savage attack of a gray fox Monday after it had fastened its teeth in her left arm.

They killed it, finally, but only after the animal had been choked, knifed and shot.

It was a terrifying experience for both Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eddy of near Newport, 12 miles east of here.

Mrs. Eddy had gone to the mailbox beside the rural road when she noticed a commotion in the weeds. Then she saw the fox in the weeds, holding a chicken. She got a rock and started to beat it over the head. The fox dropped the chicken and grabbed her left forearm in its teeth.

Mrs. Eddy screamed. Nothing she could do could shake the fox loose. Then her husband, who is 70, heard her screams and went to her aid.

First he took the animal by the throat and tried to choke it to death. But the fox still held on. Then he got a small penknife out of his pocket and tried to stab it. But the small blade would not penetrate the tough hide.

Finally, in desperation, he grabbed the animal's head and pushed the blade of the penknife into the roof of its mouth.

That made the fox release his grip on Mrs. Eddy's arm, but the animal then clamped its teeth on her fingers. At that, Eddy started beating it with his cane. It was stunned, and fell to the ground.

While the animal was unconscious, Mrs. Eddy went to the house and got a .32 caliber revolver. Eddy fired a number of shots into its body.

Mrs. Eddy's arm was badly lacerated by the fox's teeth. She was treated by a physician.

Health Department officials got the head of the animal to make a rabies test. Rabies shots for Mrs. Eddy were delayed pending outcome of the test.

DIVORCED FOR CONTEST—Leaving county courthouse in Las Vegas, Joy Blaine, 22, gaily waves her divorce decree, obtained so she can compete for the "Miss Universe" title in Long Beach, Calif., July 23. The Tropicana showgirl is "Miss Nevada," and officials said she could compete if she got a divorce. At her side is her attorney, Michael Hines.

India Disavows Claims by Lama

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Indian government made clear today it does not support the fugitive Dalai Lama's claim that he is running the real government of Tibet from his self-imposed exile in India.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman said the Indian government does "not recognize any separate government of Tibet and there is therefore no question of a Tibetan government under the Dalai Lama functioning in India."

India recognizes the Chinese Communists as the legal government of China and also recognizes China's claim to sovereignty over Tibet.

Split Threatens Education Group

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The issue of segregation in public schools once more is threatening to split the nation's largest educational organization along geographical and racial lines.

White delegates from the South want the National Education Assn. to adopt the same mildly worded resolution that was accepted after a bitter fight in Cleveland last year. Negro delegates, with the support of some Northern whites, want a strongly worded statement condemning racial segregation.

The proposed statement on integrating public schools called for a "spirit of fair play, good will and respect for law," and said the problem can be solved at local levels "by citizens of intelligence, saneness, and reasonableness working together."

New Search In Desert Is Planned

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—An expanded U.S. Army team will launch a new search in the Libyan desert next month for the bodies of the nine-man crew of an American bomber that crashed mysteriously during World War II.

American officials said today both helicopters and vehicles will be used.

This team expects to spend at least 30 days in a search of the sandy wastes where temperatures soar to 130 degrees and higher.

The Americans are believed to have bailed out of their B24 plane 16 years ago after a bombing raid on Naples, Italy. Their Liberator was found by geologists searching for oil earlier this year. The nine crew members were reported missing and presumed dead in 1943.

A U.S. Army mortuary team composed of Capt. Myron D. Fuller and Wesley A. Neep and an oil exploration crew in May combed 200 square miles of the desert and found a trail of markers apparently left by the lost airmen.

Neep, of Seattle, Wash., in an interview today said more men and vehicles will be used in the new search.

Neep said the bodies if found would be skeletal, but there will be no trouble in identification.

The Red Cross was founded 100 years ago.

SHOT PRIEST—Captured in Chicago shortly after the shooting, Clyde Cecil Moor said he shot and seriously wounded Monsignor Joseph Schneider, a Catholic priest from Ohio, on a busy downtown corner because "priests have given me trouble all my life." Moor is an escapee from Kankakee State Mental hospital, police said.

SHOT PRIEST—Captured in Chicago shortly after the shooting, Clyde Cecil Moor said he shot and seriously wounded Monsignor Joseph Schneider, a Catholic priest from Ohio, on a busy downtown corner because "priests have given me trouble all my life." Moor is an escapee from Kankakee State Mental hospital, police said.

PTA's 'Block Safety Plan' Gives Protection to Kiddies

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—"Would you like some candy, little girl?"

The car was parked at the curb. The man in it smiled graciously as he offered the candy bar to the tow-headed 6-year-old.

She wanted that candy bar as only a child could, but something in the back of her mind reminded her that mommy had told her never to talk to strangers — and never to take anything offered by them.

She said nothing and began to walk faster. The car began to follow her.

"It's awfully good candy. Are you sure you don't want it?"

Panicky, she dropped the doll she had been carrying and looked around with a frightened, almost tearful glance. Then she glimpsed a sign. Though she couldn't read very well, she knew what the big hand on the sign meant. Here was a place to which she could run if she were in trouble. Quickly she ran up the sidewalk to the door. A woman let her in.

The woman was a member of the Block Safety Plan of Hickory dale School's PTA. She and 51 other mothers had joined the plan to offer their children help and protection in a time of trouble.

Mrs. Joseph Hertzberg, who was largely responsible for starting the program, says:

"We want to let children know they have a friend. They can go to any of these homes if they get hurt or are frightened by strangers or animals," she said.

"Of course, this doesn't take the responsibility from the parents, who must teach their children how to care for themselves."

Certain strategically appointed homes at comfortable intervals are identified by the placards in an attempt to develop a good protective plan. Two other Dayton school groups have shown interest in the plan and it is hoped that the program will grow citywide.

Law enforcement and social agency workers agree that such a plan would have advantages if instituted throughout the city.

"We're glad to assist in any citizen's program like this," said Sgt. Robert Swartz of the Dayton Police Department's Juvenile Bureau. "We couldn't do a thing like this without their help because we have such a manpower shortage.

"The plan would be a good one throughout the city if it could be controlled. On such a large basis, however, it would be necessary to screen participants to make sure they are the kind of people you would want your children to turn to," he said.

"If a very small child needed help, this system could be effective. However, children must know these families to which they might turn in distress," said Mrs. Russell Arnold, executive director of the Social Hygiene Assn. of Dayton and Montgomery County.

"It is most important that parents teach their children not to think everyone is their friend. If a program like this could be conducted citywide, it would be necessary to have some kind of organized screenings and controls," she added.

Greek Capital To Get Ring of Nike Bases

ATHENS (AP)—The Greek government is going to ring Athens with Nike missile bases to protect the capital from air attack, an Air Ministry spokesman said today. Greek officers and men are already in the United States training to use the surface-to-air anti-aircraft missiles, he said. Construction of the bases on mountains overlooking Athens is due to be completed by the end of 1960.

Junior Railway

OAKLAND, N. J. (AP)—It's 500 feet from the street to Warner Rosenschein's hilltop home.

Only a dirt road, almost impassible for ordinary travel, ran up the 18 per cent grade when he moved into his house in 1954.

So he built a railroad.

The one-car electrically powered railroad cost him $1,200 to build. It makes its run in four minutes.

Her Housekeeping Is Done Too Well

LONDON (AP)—Dorothy Olsen-Smith was a model housewife. Often she got up at 6:15 a.m. and polished and dusted until 10 at night.

The pride the 31-year-old woman took in her little suburban home killed her.

In a suicide note to her husband, she wrote: "I feel I am making your life a misery because I have no time for anything else but housework."

She moved an armchair into her spotless kitchen, turned on the gas taps, and sat her two young girls on her lap.

Her husband, Cyril, told a coroner's court he found them when he returned home from work. His wife was dead. So was Vivien, 5. Marion, 2, recovered.

Reconditioning Ships

TEXAS CITY, Tex. (AP) — Some Texas fleet tanker operators now cut their ships in half —right across the middle—in a radical new plan they call "jumboizing."

The surgery takes away an old, worn-out midsection. Then a larger midsection is inserted.

Result: A bigger, better oil tanker with the same power and speed at a fraction of the cost of a new vessel, and done in a fraction of the time required to build a new ship.

Proves His Point

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The man stood before the judge for sentencing on a burglary charge.

"My 18 - year - old stepson had gone out stealing stuff," said Albert E. Grant, the 33-year-old defendant. "I had to do a wrong myself to show him crime doesn't pay."

Superior Judge Raul Castro agreed it didn't pay. He denied a probation plea and sent Grant to prison for seven to eight years.

Judge Ponders Penalty for Racial Fuss

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A Richmond judge will study probation reports before he sentences six white youths who pleaded guilty Tuesday to two counts each of malicious wounding in the shooting of six Negro boys. The probation reports are not expected for two months.

Four more malicious wounding counts against the six were continued. Also continued by Judge W. Moscow Huntley in Richmond Hustings Court was trial for three other white youths charged with one count of malicious wounding.

Conviction of malicious wounding in Virginia carries a prison sentence of from 1 to 20 years.

Six Negroes were struck April 26 by shotgun pellets fired from a speeding car as they walked toward their homes in a middle class Negro residential area. Samuel Clark Jr. and Carlton J. Washington were hospitalized.

Police said the shootings followed a rock-throwing battle between a group of whites and a group of Negroes.

Pleading guilty were Raymond G. Lumpkin, 19; Thomas A. Parkinson, 20; Robert J. Kenney, 17; Virgil T. Hancock III, 16; Cecil P. Deane, 17; and Robert L. Carlton 20.

Trial will be held later this month for John B. Flournoy, 18; Earl Price Garrison Jr. 17; and Charles Lee Carlton 22.

37 Japan Fishermen Are Released by Reds

SAPPORO, Japan (AP)—Thirty-seven Japanese fishermen came home today after a year in Soviet captivity on charges of trespassing.

Soviet Ambassador Nicolai T. Fedorenko warned that Japanese fishing boats will not be safe in northern waters until Japan signs a World War II peace treaty.

Signing a peace treaty was delayed beause of a dispute over the Soviet-held Kurile islands, which Japan claims.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four more polio cases were reported in Ohio last week, but the State Health Department says there is still no unusual concentration. The total for the year is 27. Last year at this time there were five cases.

One of last week's cases was from Miami County; the others from Athens, Fairfield and Trumbull counties.

Seventeen of the 27 cases involve paralysis, the department said, six are non-paralytic and four are unspecified.

Drink with a Kick

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Frank Barto, concessionnaire at an amusement park, was working late and got thirsty.

He dropped a dime into the soft drink machine. Nothing happened so he banged it with his fist. A shotgun blast was the response, the pellets inflicting superficial wounds on Barto's head, shoulder and back.

John W. Stewart, the park owner, said he heard the noise and thought burglars were looting the machine.

So There!

BALTIMORE (AP) — Rodin's statue, "The Thinker," at the Museum of Art, was no puzzle at all to 5-year-old Susan White.

The man was sitting there sad and all, she said, because he was trying to remember where he left all his clothes.

Judge Ponders Penalty for Racial Fuss

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A Richmond judge will study probation reports before he sentences six white youths who pleaded guilty Tuesday to two counts each of malicious wounding in the shooting of six Negro boys. The probation reports are not expected for two months.

Four more malicious wounding counts against the six were continued. Also continued by Judge W. Moscow Huntley in Richmond Hustings Court was trial for three other white youths charged with one count of malicious wounding.

Conviction of malicious wounding in Virginia carries a prison sentence of from 1 to 20 years.

Six Negroes were struck April 26 by shotgun pellets fired from a speeding car as they walked toward their homes in a middle class Negro residential area. Samuel Clark Jr. and Carlton J. Washington were hospitalized.

Police said the shootings followed a rock-throwing battle between a group of whites and a group of Negroes.

Pleading guilty were Raymond G. Lumpkin, 19; Thomas A. Parkinson, 20; Robert J. Kenney, 17; Virgil T. Hancock III, 16; Cecil P. Deane, 17; and Robert L. Carlton 20.

Trial will be held later this month for John B. Flournoy, 18; Earl Price Garrison Jr. 17; and Charles Lee Carlton 22.

Jap Salaries Climb

TOKYO (AP) — The average Japanese salaried man was paid $51.41 a month before taxes in 1958, or 31 per cent more than five years before.

Non-Resident High License Fees Studied

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—The practice of charging non-resident sportsmen more money for a hunting and fishing license than residents is getting some attention from thinking conservationists.

There is even a possibility that the practice may be discontinued in many other states.

For, some fisheries say, the practice is impractical when it comes to fishing licenses.

The custom has been based on the assumption that out-of-state fishermen come flocking into a state and catch all the fish that should rightfully belong to the resident angler.

However, some surveys in the past few years have disproven this theory.

Trout stocked by a game department belong no more to the resident angler than the non-resident, say the experts. The fisheries division of game departments are fiananced by the sale of fishing licenses.

Nationally, there are only one-sixth as many non resident anglers as residents.

One reason a re-evaluation of the non resident license program might be in order, say the conservationists, is strictly economic.

Times are changing. Nowadays the tourist is a welcome sight rather than someone to scare away.

Help For Farmers

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP) — Agriculture Minister W. J. Keough says the Newfoundland government spent $250,000 on various services for farmers during 1958. No other occupational group in Newfoundland receives as much assistance, he said.

BRINGS WORLD RECORD PRICE—Snatching the painting from the outstretched check-books of a host of art experts from the United States and Europe, a London dealer, Leonard Koetser, paid a world record auction price of $770,000 for this Peter Rubens' masterpiece, "Adoration of the Magi." The sale was made at Sotheby's auction rooms in London.

Automation Stressed For Russian Industry

MOSCOW (AP) — Automation stressed today in new orders to Soviet industry to meet production targets set by Premier Nikita Khrushchev in his campaign to catch up with the United States. The Communist party's Central Committee called for modernization of industry under the new seven-year plan to boost output and production standards.

Negro Officer Upped To Major General

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today approved promotion of Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Jr., Negro officer in the Air Force, to the temporary rank of major general.

Davis is the first of his race to reach that rank in the armed services. His father was a brigadier general.

Davis now is deputy chief of staff for operations for the U. S. Air Force in Europe with headquarters at Ramstein Air Force Base, Germany.

Trout stocked by a game department belong no more to the resident angler than the non-resident, say the experts. The fisheries division of game departments are fiananced by the sale of fishing licenses.

Nationally, there are only one-sixth as many non resident anglers as residents.

One reason a re-evaluation of the non resident license program might be in order, say the conservationists, is strictly economic.

Times are changing. Nowadays the tourist is a welcome sight rather than someone to scare away.

Most Yankees Believe Big Boom Is Ahead

Second Half of 1959 Holds Promise of Growing Prosperity

Editor's Note — Seldom have more peple been more confident that the American economy is climbing to a new peak of prosperity. In the following, second of two articles on the midyear outlook, Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, discusses the probabilities and uncertainties ahead.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Still better times acoming? Most Americans think so.

The second half of the year holds the promise of being better than the first. Both consumers and businessmen know that the first half was a sleeper. They'd been promised improvement over 1958. But what they got was surprisingly better than that.

Now they're being promised a measure of prosperity in the months just ahead that once was thought a year or more away.

It adds up to more jobs, fewer jobless, bigger incomes from wages and investments. It also seems likely to add up to slightly higher prices, a bigger load of personal debts, still tighter money, and more taxes at the state and local levels.

The outlook is a bit more clouded for housing, stock prices, the status of the dollar in world eyes, and the acceptance of Detroit's new cars.

The immediate question is how much, if any, of a summer lull? And what part will the steel industry play in it?

If there's a steel strike, several hundred thousand workers in that and allied industries will be out of work. How long steel users can live off stocks they've built up is the subject of much guessing.

If there isn't a strike, how long these users will live off their strike-insurance stocks before reordering is also uncertain.

Some industries — notably textiles—expect to do so well this summer that they plan to hold vacation periods to a minimum.

A slow but steady rise in wage sales is widely expected during the rest of the year. Further shrinking in unemployment is looked for by most.

Most items in the cost of living have crept higher during the first half of the year and seem likely to go right on that way, perhaps at a faster pace. The moderating item has been the important one of food, but the summer is expected to see a seasonal rise in food prices.

Farmers saw their prices shrink during the first half of the year but expect total farm income to be fairly stable the rest of the year.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Although supermarkets are a comparatively recent arrival on the American scene they seem bent on establishing traditional marketing patterns. One of these is offering ham and turkey as bargain specials on holidays.

Again this weekend these items are the most frequently advertised specials around the country. Turkeys are an especially logical choice, because marketings are expected to run well above last year through the summer. This is due to last winter's large hatch.

Pork prices are expected to remain under last year's levels, reflecting the sale of the 17 per cent larger crop of pigs born last fall.

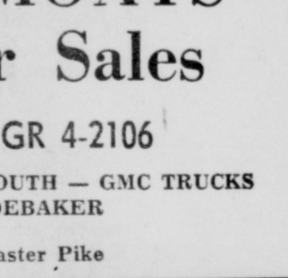

Another reason for the ham-turkey combine is the recent advance in prices of frying chickens, which used to be considered a top Fourth of July item. Mark-ups of 2 to 8 cents a pound are scattered around the country due to smaller hatchings.

Eggs also continued their upward swing, climbing 4 to 8 cents a dozen, due to the seasonal decline in egg production.

Holiday meals will be brightened by a long list of fresh fruits and vegetables at bargain levels.

Corn, a Fourth of July staple, now comes to market from New Jersey as well as Florida, North Carolina and Virginia. Other best buys are snap beans, cabbage, yellow or green squash, all varieties of lettuce, radishes, green onions and cucumbers.

Bargain fruits include blue berries, bananas, pineapples, mangoes, peaches and cantaloups, although the last named show a wide range in quality and condition.

Sad Sam Moans As No-Hit Effort Proves in Vain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They call him Sad Sam Jones and he stood with head bowed, hands on his knees, when the "hit" signed flashed, snuffing out his bid for a second major league no-hitter with two out in the eighth.

An infield bouncer by Junior Gilliam, credited with a controversial single, was the only hit Los Angeles managed against the big right-hander Tuesday night as he pitched San Francisco to a 2-0 victory over the Dodgers with the help of Willie Mays' two-run homer.

It was the second "near-miss" stab at a no-hitter this season by Jones, now 9-8 who had to settle for the first one-hitter of his career while the Giants closed within a half-game of the National League lead.

Some of the 59,312 fans in the Los Angeles Coliseum booed the scorer's decision on the bouncing ball, which cleared Jones' head and rolled toward second base. Shortstop Andre Rodgers picked it up, then dropped it. The official scorer ruled that the fleet, switch-hitting Gilliam, getting an extra jump batting left-handed, would have beaten it out anyway.

Jones' comment: "Can you imagine anyone calling that a hit? They don't want no-hitters thrown around here."

Cincinnati whipped first-place Milwaukee 8 - 5 on three home runs. Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 4-3, and St. Louis beat Chicago's Cubs 4-1.

The Dodgers, third, 1½ games back with their second loss in a row after winning seven straight, put five men on base. Three times the runner was Gilliam, who got both of Jones' walks. The other runners made it on a fielder's choice and an error.

Sad Sam retired 22 of the last 24 he faced, putting down 10 in a row before Gilliam walked in the sixth, then getting eight straight before the hit. Gilliam reached second in the eighth on a passed ball, but got no farther as Wally Moon fouled out. Jones got the side in order in the ninth, fanning Gil Hodges for his 10th strikeout and the final out.

Jones, 33, pitched his no-hitter against Pittsburgh when he was with the Cubs, May 12, 1955. Last May 13, he had Philadelphia no-hit until Willie Jones beat out an infield dribbler with two out in the seventh. He finished with a two-hitter.

If you don't think Hoyt Wilhelm is having trouble these days, consider this: Even the New York Yankees can beat him now.

The knuckle - batting right hander considered the choice as the American League's starting pitcher in next Tuesday's All - Star game at Pittsburgh, was the league's unbeaten ace after his first nine decisions. But he hasn't won since, losing his third in a row Tuesday night as the Yankees rapped third-place Baltimore 4-1.

And if you don't think rapped is apt for a four-run scoring spurt, you may have forgotten that the Yankees had managed only four earned runs off Wilhelm in 59 2-3 innings before Tuesday night. Fact is, this is the first time the Yankees have beaten Wilhelm in five decisions since he became an Oriole last year.

The victory left the Yankees in a fourth-place tie with the Detroit Tigers, who beat Kansas City 4-0, and four games behind Cleveland. The first-place Indians gained a two-game lead by defeating Chicago's second-place White Sox Boston 6-1.

Face, Conley Get Star Bids

7 Pitchers Selected For National League

CINCINNATI (AP) — Little Elroy Face, Pittsburgh's unbeaten relief ace, and tall Gene Conley, swapped by Milwaukee last spring to Philadelphia, were among the seven pitchers named by Manager Fred Haney to his National League All-Star squad.

The veteran Milwaukee pilot Tuesday selected 17 players to go along with the eight starters picked by the players themselves for the 26th annual All-Star game in Pittsburgh, July 7. The lone surprise was Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Although Stan was named on only three players' ballots, Haney saw to it that this National League great was on the squad for the 16th straight time. Musial's batting average is .262 with seven homers and 29 runs batted in.

Other pitchers chosen by Haney included San Francisco's Johnny Antonelli (11-4), Milwaukee's Warren Spahn (10-8) and St. Louis' Wilmer Mizell (9-4), all southpaws; and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette (11-6) and Los Angeles' Don Drysdale (8-5), right - handers. Face is 12-0 and Conley 5-4.

With one exception, Haney's "second team" choices followed the vote of the players. He named St. Louis' Bill White and Joe Cunningham and Cincinnati's Vada Pinson as his alternate outfielders, and Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski and Dick Groat, and St. Louis' Ken Boyer as his alternate infielders. Groat replaced shortstop Roy McMillan of Cincinnati, who is out of action with an injured hand.

Haney selected two catchers — Smoky Burgess of Pittsburgh and Hal Smith of St. Louis — to support Milwaukee's Del Crandall behind the plate. In addition to Crandall, the first team consists of Orlando Cepeda, Giants, first base; Johnny Temple, Reds, second base; Ernie Banks, Cubs, shortstop, Eddie Mathews, Braves, third base; Willie Mays, Giants, center field; Henry Aaron, Braves, right field and Wally Moon, Dodgers, left field.

Stitch, Sawyer Due on TV Bout

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Rudell Stitch, with everything to lose, takes on Rudy Sawyer, with everything to gain, in a scheduled 10-round welterweight fight tonight.

Stitch was expected to weigh 147 and Sawyer 149 for the nationally televised (ABC) bout at 9 p.m. (EST).

Stitch, from Louisville, could rest on his laurels without the match. The National Boxing Assn. ranks him No. 2 contender. He has a 20-5 record.

Sawyer, an unrated New Yorker, lost a decision to Kid Paret June 1 which damaged a previous 18-1 record. One other fight was a draw.

More than 100 members of Presbyterian churches in this area will sit together in a special cheering section for church elder Stitch.

Fighter of Month Is Swede, of Course

NEW YORK (AP)— Sweden's Ingemar Johansson today was named Ring Magazine's "fighter of the month" for winning the heavyweight championship on his third round knockout of Floyd Patterson.

Johansson Preps As Pro Slowly

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson says he first became interested in boxing when he was 13.

"I read about Joe Louis and I see that he is a big man and getting everything," said the new heavyweight champion.

When he was 15 he started boxing in amateur competition. He left school at the same time.

"I didn't like school. Some of the teachers didn't like me," he added.

One of six children of a stonecutter and laborer, Ingemar went to work on construction gangs and on the docks. This physical labor hardened his body and broadened his shoulders.

"I had about 86 amateur fights," he said. "I win almost all of them and the Swedish championship. After the Olympics, I felt I was ready to fight the professionals."

Johansson won 11 straight pro fights, six of them by knockouts, through the summer of 1955. He was beginning to create a stir in Scandinavian countries.

On Aug. 28, 1955, Johansson knocked out Hein Ten Hoff, Germany's fading European champion, in the first round. He was ready for faster competition.

He came to the U.S. to take a look at American fighters after the Ten Hoff slaughter. Ingo visited famed Stillman's Gym. He looked at the American style of fighting, did some sparring, and returned to his native land.

"I could see I was not ready yet for this kind of competition," he said.

In 1956 he stopped European champion Franco Cavicchi of Italy at Bologna, Italy in 13 rounds.

On Feb. 21, 1958, Johansson defended his European title against Welshman Joe Erskine, the British champion who was virtually set for a title fight in America with world champion Floyd Patterson.

Johansson stopped Erskine in the 13th round.

Five months later Johansson knocked out Germany's Heinz Neuhaus in the fourth round.

"We knew he was ready for the best now," said Edwin Ahlquist, Johansson's adviser.

Eddie Machen, the undefeated No. 1 contender from California, was imported.

For the first minute Johansson backed away from Machen. Suddenly Ingo's right shot out, crashing against Machen's temple. The Californian crumpled to the canvas at 1:13. He staggered to his feet but Johansson stormed after him. It was all over in 136 seconds.

The mighty upset startled the boxing world. Johansson became the No. 1 contender with a 21-0 record, including 13 knockouts. He was matched with Patterson after prolonged, secret negotiations.

NEXT: Johansson's training method. Will it revolutionize training in the U.S.?

DuPont Tops GE, 11-4

General Electric went down to its first defeat of the Babe Ruth season last night at the hands of DuPont, 11-4.

Previously winless, DuPont took a 3-0 lead in the third and fourth innings and then blasted league leading GE for eight runs in the fifth inning on only two hits.

GE's trouble started in the second inning when Ted Gulick hit a home run which was reduced to a single when he was called out for failing to touch second base.

GE committed six errors on hit balls and several more throwing errors. DuPont played errorless baseball and racked three GE pitchers for six hits.

* * *

THE WIN went to Donny Phifer after he had dropped his first two games. Phifer fanned five and walked eight in going the route.

The loss was absorbed by Johnny Good. He fanned six and walked one before being relieved by Harold Hartley. Weller finished up by quelling the DuPont fifth inning rally.

Top sluggers for the game were GE's Gulick and DuPont's Justice.

GE still holds a strong grip on first place with a 4-1 record. DuPont remains in the cellar with a 1-4 slate. Next Babe Ruth action pits DuPont (1-4) against Kiwanis (2-2) at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday on the softball diamond.

Puttering Around PCC

By GEORGE FICKARDT

Some of the good young golfers are really doing well these days.

Bob Fuhrman, just 13, shot a neat 40. Tom (Red) Bivens came through with a 41. Tim Dickinson rapped a 44 along with Jimmy Wellington and Steve Helwagen.

There are rumors that petitions will be submitted to the school for the formation of a golf team next year. With boys shooting like they are now they should be encouraged, have proper supervision and instruction.

The hope is that Steve Brudzinski, himself a fine golfer, will take over.

One of our good new caddies Tommy Jenkins, had a bad spill over the handlebars of his bicyle He suffered a lot of facial damage. He is coming along fine but it will be a while before he is able for duty. Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, 666 E. Mound St.

Braves Lead Kingston Little League

The Braves took a 1½ game lead in Kingston Little League play after a full slate of action last week.

The Braves won their only tilt last week, a narrow 7-6 win over the Cards. Winning hurler was Bill Large. He struck out 15 in winning, while loser, Joe Streitenberger, fanned 13.

For awhile, it looked as if the Cards had an upset in the making as they led, 5-0, going into the top half of the final inning.

The Braves' D. Strausbaugh singled and then after the next batter fanned, four batters were walked. With two out and the bases loaded, Billy Wood belted a double to drive in the tying runs.

* * *

IN THE OVERTIME inning, the Braves tallied twice on Bob Brooks two-run single to ice the contest. The Cards scored one run on the strength of Streitenberger's triple but fell one short of a tie in the bottom half of the extra inning.

Top sluggers of the game were Wood, Sammy Miller and Streitenberger with 2 for 4. Wood and Streitenberger had two RBI's and Brooks had three.

The luckless Cards won their third game earlier in the week with a 4-1 victory over the Reds. Streitenberger went the route, fanning 11.

Losing pitcher was Carper. Jimmy Wolfe's two-run triple paced the Cards' scoring. Joe Rayburn had the only hit off Streitenberger, a single.

The Reds followed the next night with a 5-4 win over the winless Giants. D. Large recorded the win and Hammond was charged with the loss.

The Reds could only manage three hits, but bunched them in the second inning when they scored all their runs. Dick DeLong tapped the winning hit, a two-run single.

* * *

THE GIANTS battled from behind to almost cop the win, but the game ended with the bases loaded with Giants. Butch Smith and Hammond each had a pair of hits for the Giants.

Following the Braves (4-0) in the win column are the Cards, (3-2), 1½ games out, then the Reds (2-3) 2½ games back and finally the winless Giants (0-4) are in the cellar.

Deed's Dairy Ups Record

Deed's Dairy, Lancaster American Legion baseball team, stretched its record to 20-5 over the weekend with thre wins and a single loss.

Deed's 15-game winning streak was broken Friday by Cincinnati Western Hills, formerly Bentley American Legion Post. Cincinnati topped Lancaster, 3-1, in nine innings.

Circleville's Joe Adkins was charged with the loss, though he held Western Hills to five hits while his teammates were garnering eight.

Adkins fanned 11, but 10 walks cost him the game. Winning pitcher was Lundy, who whiffed six and issued two free passes.

* * *

ADKINS teammate, Cal Ellis, smacked one hit during the contest. Saturday, Lancaster topped Portsmouth, 4-1, and Sunday slaughtered Washington C. H. 27-8.

Ellis suffered an injury during one of the games, when he was belted with an inside pitch in the eye. His injury was minor. Yesterday Lancaster topped McArthur, 7-2.

Sad Sam Moans As No-Hit Effort Proves in Vain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They call him Sad Sam Jones and he stood with head bowed, hands on his knees, when the "hit" signed flashed, snuffing out his bid for a second major league no-hitter with two out in the eighth.

An infield bouncer by Junior Gilliam, credited with a controversial single, was the only hit Los Angeles managed against the big right-hander Tuesday night as he pitched San Francisco to a 2-0 victory over the Dodgers with the help of Willie Mays' two-run homer.

It was the second "near-miss" stab at a no-hitter this season by Jones, now 9-8 who had to settle for the first one-hitter of his career while the Giants closed within a half-game of the National League lead.

Some of the 59,312 fans in the Los Angeles Coliseum booed the scorer's decision on the bouncing ball, which cleared Jones' head and rolled toward second base. Shortstop Andre Rodgers picked it up, then dropped it. The official scorer ruled that the fleet, switch-hitting Gilliam, getting an extra jump batting left-handed, would have beaten it out anyway.

Jones' comment: "Can you imagine anyone calling that a hit? They don't want no-hitters thrown around here."

Cincinnati whipped first-place Milwaukee 8 - 5 on three home runs. Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 4-3, and St. Louis beat Chicago's Cubs 4-1.

The Dodgers, third, 1½ games back with their second loss in a row after winning seven straight, put five men on base. Three times the runner was Gilliam, who got both of Jones' walks. The other runners made it on a fielder's choice and an error.

Sad Sam retired 22 of the last 24 he faced, putting down 10 in a row before Gilliam walked in the sixth, then getting eight straight before the hit. Gilliam reached second in the eighth on a passed ball, but got no farther as Wally Moon fouled out. Jones got the side in order in the ninth, fanning Gil Hodges for his 10th strikeout and the final out.

Jones, 33, pitched his no-hitter against Pittsburgh when he was with the Cubs, May 12, 1955. Last May 13, he had Philadelphia no-hit until Willie Jones beat out an infield dribbler with two out in the seventh. He finished with a two-hitter.

If you don't think Hoyt Wilhelm is having trouble these days, consider this: Even the New York Yankees can beat him now.

The knuckle - batting right hander considered the choice as the American League's starting pitcher in next Tuesday's All - Star game at Pittsburgh, was the league's unbeaten ace after his first nine decisions. But he hasn't won since, losing his third in a row Tuesday night as the Yankees rapped third-place Baltimore 4-1.

And if you don't think rapped is apt for a four-run scoring spurt, you may have forgotten that the Yankees had managed only four earned runs off Wilhelm in 59 2-3 innings before Tuesday night. Fact is, this is the first time the Yankees have beaten Wilhelm in five decisions since he became an Oriole last year.

The victory left the Yankees in a fourth-place tie with the Detroit Tigers, who beat Kansas City 4-0, and four games behind Cleveland. The first-place Indians gained a two-game lead by defeating Chicago's second-place White Sox Boston 6-1.

Face, Conley Get Star Bids

7 Pitchers Selected For National League

CINCINNATI (AP) — Little Elroy Face, Pittsburgh's unbeaten relief ace, and tall Gene Conley, swapped by Milwaukee last spring to Philadelphia, were among the seven pitchers named by Manager Fred Haney to his National League All-Star squad.

The veteran Milwaukee pilot Tuesday selected 17 players to go along with the eight starters picked by the players themselves for the 26th annual All-Star game in Pittsburgh, July 7. The lone surprise was Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Although Stan was named on only three players' ballots, Haney saw to it that this National League great was on the squad for the 16th straight time. Musial's batting average is .262 with seven homers and 29 runs batted in.

Other pitchers chosen by Haney included San Francisco's Johnny Antonelli (11-4), Milwaukee's Warren Spahn (10-8) and St. Louis' Wilmer Mizell (9-4), all southpaws; and Milwaukee's Lew Burdette (11-6) and Los Angeles' Don Drysdale (8-5), right - handers. Face is 12-0 and Conley 5-4.

With one exception, Haney's "second team" choices followed the vote of the players. He named St. Louis' Bill White and Joe Cunningham and Cincinnati's Vada Pinson as his alternate outfielders, and Cincinnati's Frank Robinson, Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski and Dick Groat, and St. Louis' Ken Boyer as his alternate infielders. Groat replaced shortstop Roy McMillan of Cincinnati, who is out of action with an injured hand.

Haney selected two catchers — Smoky Burgess of Pittsburgh and Hal Smith of St. Louis — to support Milwaukee's Del Crandall behind the plate. In addition to Crandall, the first team consists of Orlando Cepeda, Giants, first base; Johnny Temple, Reds, second base; Ernie Banks, Cubs, shortstop, Eddie Mathews, Braves, third base; Willie Mays, Giants, center field; Henry Aaron, Braves, right field and Wally Moon, Dodgers, left field.

Stitch, Sawyer Due on TV Bout

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Rudell Stitch, with everything to lose, takes on Rudy Sawyer, with everything to gain, in a scheduled 10-round welterweight fight tonight.

Stitch was expected to weigh 147 and Sawyer 149 for the nationally televised (ABC) bout at 9 p.m. (EST).

Stitch, from Louisville, could rest on his laurels without the match. The National Boxing Assn. ranks him No. 2 contender. He has a 20-5 record.

Sawyer, an unrated New Yorker, lost a decision to Kid Paret June 1 which damaged a previous 18-1 record. One other fight was a draw.

More than 100 members of Presbyterian churches in this area will sit together in a special cheering section for church elder Stitch.

Fighter of Month Is Swede, of Course

NEW YORK (AP)— Sweden's Ingemar Johansson today was named Ring Magazine's "fighter of the month" for winning the heavyweight championship on his third round knockout of Floyd Patterson.

SPORTS

Johansson Preps As Pro Slowly

NEW YORK (AP) — Ingemar Johansson says he first became interested in boxing when he was 13.

"I read about Joe Louis and I see that he is a big man and getting everything," said the new heavyweight champion.

When he was 15 he started boxing in amateur competition. He left school at the same time.

"I didn't like school. Some of the teachers didn't like me," he added.

One of six children of a stonecutter and laborer, Ingemar went to work on construction gangs and on the docks. This physical labor hardened his body and broadened his shoulders.

"I had about 86 amateur fights," he said. "I win almost all of them and the Swedish championship. After the Olympics, I felt I was ready to fight the professionals."

Johansson won 11 straight pro fights, six of them by knockouts, through the summer of 1955. He was beginning to create a stir in Scandinavian countries.

On Aug. 28, 1955, Johansson knocked out Hein Ten Hoff, Germany's fading European champion, in the first round. He was ready for faster competition.

He came to the U.S. to take a look at American fighters after the Ten Hoff slaughter. Ingo visited famed Stillman's Gym. He looked at the American style of fighting, did some sparring, and returned to his native land.

"I could see I was not ready yet for this kind of competition," he said.

In 1956 he stopped European champion Franco Cavicchi of Italy at Bologna, Italy in 13 rounds.

On Feb. 21, 1958, Johansson defended his European title against Welshman Joe Erskine, the British champion who was virtually set for a title fight in America with world champion Floyd Patterson.

Johansson stopped Erskine in the 13th round.

Five months later Johansson knocked out Germany's Heinz Neuhaus in the fourth round.

"We knew he was ready for the best now," said Edwin Ahlquist, Johansson's adviser.

Eddie Machen, the undefeated No. 1 contender from California, was imported.

For the first minute Johansson backed away from Machen. Suddenly Ingo's right shot out, crashing against Machen's temple. The Californian crumpled to the canvas at 1:13. He staggered to his feet but Johansson stormed after him. It was all over in 136 seconds.

The mighty upset startled the boxing world. Johansson became the No. 1 contender with a 21-0 record, including 13 knockouts. He was matched with Patterson after prolonged, secret negotiations.

NEXT: Johansson's training method. Will it revolutionize training in the U.S.?

DuPont Tops GE, 11-4

General Electric went down to its first defeat of the Babe Ruth season last night at the hands of DuPont, 11-4.

Previously winless, DuPont took a 3-0 lead in the third and fourth innings and then blasted league leading GE for eight runs in the fifth inning on only two hits.

GE's trouble started in the second inning when Ted Gulick hit a home run which was reduced to a single when he was called out for failing to touch second base.

GE committed six errors on hit balls and several more throwing errors. DuPont played errorless baseball and racked three GE pitchers for six hits.

* * *

THE WIN went to Donny Phifer after he had dropped his first two games. Phifer fanned five and walked eight in going the route.

The loss was absorbed by Johnny Good. He fanned six and walked one before being relieved by Harold Hartley. Weller finished up by quelling the DuPont fifth inning rally.

Top sluggers for the game were GE's Gulick and DuPont's Justice.

GE still holds a strong grip on first place with a 4-1 record. DuPont remains in the cellar with a 1-4 slate. Next Babe Ruth action pits DuPont (1-4) against Kiwanis (2-2) at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday on the softball diamond.

Puttering Around PCC

By GEORGE FICKARDT

Some of the good young golfers are really doing well these days.

Bob Fuhrman, just 13, shot a neat 40. Tom (Red) Bivens came through with a 41. Tim Dickinson rapped a 44 along with Jimmy Wellington and Steve Helwagen.

There are rumors that petitions will be submitted to the school for the formation of a golf team next year. With boys shooting like they are now they should be encouraged, have proper supervision and instruction.

The hope is that Steve Brudzinski, himself a fine golfer, will take over.

One of our good new caddies Tommy Jenkins, had a bad spill over the handlebars of his bicyle He suffered a lot of facial damage. He is coming along fine but it will be a while before he is able for duty. Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, 666 E. Mound St.

DeedDairy Ups Record

Deed's Dairy, Lancaster American Legion baseball team, stretched its record to 20-5 over the weekend with thre wins and a single loss.

Deed's 15-game winning streak was broken Friday by Cincinnati Western Hills, formerly Bentley American Legion Post. Cincinnati topped Lancaster, 3-1, in nine innings.

Circleville's Joe Adkins was charged with the loss, though he held Western Hills to five hits while his teammates were garnering eight.

Adkins fanned 11, but 10 walks cost him the game. Winning pitcher was Lundy, who whiffed six and issued two free passes.

* * *

ADKINS teammate, Cal Ellis, smacked one hit during the contest. Saturday, Lancaster topped Portsmouth, 4-1, and Sunday slaughtered Washington C. H. 27-8.

Ellis suffered an injury during one of the games, when he was belted with an inside pitch in the eye. His injury was minor. Yesterday Lancaster topped McArthur, 7-2.

Braves Lead Kingston Little League

The Braves took a 1½ game lead in Kingston Little League play after a full slate of action last week.

The Braves won their only tilt last week, a narrow 7-6 win over the Cards. Winning hurler was Bill Large. He struck out 15 in winning, while loser, Joe Streitenberger, fanned 13.

For awhile, it looked as if the Cards had an upset in the making as they led, 5-0, going into the top half of the final inning.

The Braves' D. Strausbaugh singled and then after the next batter fanned, four batters were walked. With two out and the bases loaded, Billy Wood belted a double to drive in the tying runs.

* * *

IN THE OVERTIME inning, the Braves tallied twice on Bob Brooks two-run single to ice the contest. The Cards scored one run on the strength of Streitenberger's triple but fell one short of a tie in the bottom half of the extra inning.

Top sluggers of the game were Wood, Sammy Miller and Streitenberger with 2 for 4. Wood and Streitenberger had two RBI's and Brooks had three.

The luckless Cards won their third game earlier in the week with a 4-1 victory over the Reds. Streitenberger went the route, fanning 11.

Losing pitcher was Carper. Jimmy Wolfe's two-run triple paced the Cards' scoring. Joe Rayburn had the only hit off Streitenberger, a single.

The Reds followed the next night with a 5-4 win over the winless Giants. D. Large recorded the win and Hammond was charged with the loss.

The Reds could only manage three hits, but bunched them in the second inning when they scored all their runs. Dick DeLong tapped the winning hit, a two-run single.

* * *

THE GIANTS battled from behind to almost cop the win, but the game ended with the bases loaded with Giants. Butch Smith and Hammond each had a pair of hits for the Giants.

Following the Braves (4-0) in the win column are the Cards, (3-2), 1½ games out, then the Reds (2-3) 2½ games back and finally the winless Giants (0-4) are in the cellar.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

A Mother's Valuable Plea

DEAR ABBY: Will you please inform the general public that when a parent loses an afflicted child the most heartless and ignorant of all remarks offered by well-meaning friends is: "It's a blessing your child died." I raised a child with a defective heart. I guarded and protected every flicker of life in my child but at age eleven her little heart gave away. My only comfort was in knowing that she would suffer no more. Yet I grieve the same as any mother would grieve at the loss of a strong and healthy child. There is no consolation—only the thrust of a knife in a fresh wound when a parent is told, "It's a blessing your child died."

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR MOTHER: Your fine letter is of inestimable value. I am certain that those of us who read it will think twice before offering the kind of "consolation" you describe. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ABBY: Can girls who wear glasses be just as popular as girls without them?

GIRL WITH GLASSES

DEAR GIRL: It depends on their frames.

DEAR ABBY: We are just a couple of old grandparents who love our children but we are criticized by all our friends because we "baby-sit" for our grandchildren whenever we are asked. Our friends say we are "suckers" and should have our heads examined. They say, "Tell your children you raised yours and they should raise their own!" When our children go off on trips and they leave their little ones with us, we love it. We never felt taken advantage of. Are we blind to the truth or are we normal grandparents?

GRANDPARENTS

DEAR GRANDPARENTS: As long as you "love it" go right ahead and baby-sit. But if you ever feel "taken advantage of" and you continue to baby-sit—then you ought to have your heads examined.

DEAR ABBY: About 2 months ago my 16-year-old daughter fell very hard for a fellow who, from all appearances, seemed very nice. He gave her a big rush and she was never happier.

Last week she received a phone call from a girl who told her she has been going steady with this boy for a year. Since that time my daughter has not eaten enough to keep a bird alive.

She hasn't heard from the boy since. It's apparent the boy knows the girl called her. Or perhaps he put her up to it. What can I do to help mend my daughter's broken heart? HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your daughter's heart is not broken—she has just learned LESSON ONE the hard way: Never again will she give her heart to a boy about whom she knows so little. She'll get over it if you encourage her to go out with others.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Jets Dropped By Montreal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When the Buffalo Bisons bought pitcher Max Surkont from the Pacific Coast League's Seattle club earlier this month, the idea was to have a veteran around who could jump in as a spot reliever, or take an occasional turn as a starter.

Either way, Manager Kerby Farrell figured it would not hurt his club's chances of hanging onto first place in the International League. So far he is right.

Tuesday night, in his third mound appearance for Buffalo and his first as a starter, Surkont scattered eight hits as the Bisons knocked off Havana 4-2. The victory, coupled with second-place Rochester's 11-8 loss to Miami, gave the Bisons a 3½ game lead in the IL—their biggest margin in three weeks.

Richmond took over second place by one percentage point, dropping Rochester to third, with a 4-2 victory over Toronto. Montreal defeated Columbus 4-2.

A Mother's Valuable Plea

DEAR ABBY: Will you please inform the general public that when a parent loses an afflicted child the most heartless and ignorant of all remarks offered by well-meaning friends is: "It's a blessing your child died." I raised a child with a defective heart. I guarded and protected every flicker of life in my child but at age eleven her little heart gave away. My only comfort was in knowing that she would suffer no more. Yet I grieve the same as any mother would grieve at the loss of a strong and healthy child. There is no consolation—only the thrust of a knife in a fresh wound when a parent is told, "It's a blessing your child died."

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR MOTHER: Your fine letter is of inestimable value. I am certain that those of us who read it will think twice before offering the kind of "consolation" you describe. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ABBY: Can girls who wear glasses be just as popular as girls without them?

GIRL WITH GLASSES

DEAR GIRL: It depends on their frames.

DEAR ABBY: We are just a couple of old grandparents who love our children but we are criticized by all our friends because we "baby-sit" for our grandchildren whenever we are asked. Our friends say we are "suckers" and should have our heads examined. They say, "Tell your children you raised yours and they should raise their own!" When our children go off on trips and they leave their little ones with us, we love it. We never felt taken advantage of. Are we blind to the truth or are we normal grandparents?

GRANDPARENTS

DEAR GRANDPARENTS: As long as you "love it" go right ahead and baby-sit. But if you ever feel "taken advantage of" and you continue to baby-sit—then you ought to have your heads examined.

DEAR ABBY: About 2 months ago my 16-year-old daughter fell very hard for a fellow who, from all appearances, seemed very nice. He gave her a big rush and she was never happier.

Last week she received a phone call from a girl who told her she has been going steady with this boy for a year. Since that time my daughter has not eaten enough to keep a bird alive.

She hasn't heard from the boy since. It's apparent the boy knows the girl called her. Or perhaps he put her up to it. What can I do to help mend my daughter's broken heart? HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Your daughter's heart is not broken—she has just learned LESSON ONE the hard way: Never again will she give her heart to a boy about whom she knows so little. She'll get over it if you encourage her to go out with others.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Jets Dropped By Montreal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When the Buffalo Bisons bought pitcher Max Surkont from the Pacific Coast League's Seattle club earlier this month, the idea was to have a veteran around who could jump in as a spot reliever, or take an occasional turn as a starter.

Either way, Manager Kerby Farrell figured it would not hurt his club's chances of hanging onto first place in the International League. So far he is right.

Tuesday night, in his third mound appearance for Buffalo and his first as a starter, Surkont scattered eight hits as the Bisons knocked off Havana 4-2. The victory, coupled with second-place Rochester's 11-8 loss to Miami, gave the Bisons a 3½ game lead in the IL—their biggest margin in three weeks.

Richmond took over second place by one percentage point, dropping Rochester to third, with a 4-2 victory over Toronto. Montreal defeated Columbus 4-2.

Teays Valley Enrollment Set at 1,890

Teays Valley School District officials expect approximately 1,890 pupils to enroll in district schools in the fall, according to registration figures compiled in June.

This will be an increase of 150 pupils over last fall when 1,740 students enrolled. This calls for five additional teachers and five more rooms.

The rooms are available according to a recent statement by district executive head, Earl R. Gregg, but this increase fills every available room in the district.

Grade school enrollment by class found: 218 first graders; 216, second; 179 third; 161 fourth; 169 fifth; 184 sixth; 158 seventh, and 150 eighth.

* * *

GRADE SCHOOL enrollments by Teays Valley school are: 357, Ashville; 169, Duvall; 70, South Bloomfield; 372, Walnut; 101, Madison, and 366, Scioto, for a total of 1,435.

High school enrollments by class are: freshmen, 118; sophomres, 109; juniors, 109, and seniors, 119, for a total of 455.

High school enrollment by district school is 208, Ashville; 136, Walnut, and Scioto, 111.

Teays Valley conducted a school enumeration of all children six years of age and under. The report shows 192 six-year-olds; 193, five; 225, four; 231, three; 260, two; 270, one, and 221 of 0 to nine months old.

The discrepancy between the number of first graders expected in September, 1959 and the number of six-year-olds of 1959 is because of the 16 1958-59 first grade failures and an estimate that only 10 of the 33 children eligible to take the readiness test in August will be ready for the first grade this fall.

The readiness test is for all children who will be six-years-of-age after September 1 and before November 1. The test will determine if they are ready for schooling or should wait another year.

State Spending Tops Income in Last Year

Teays Valley conducted a school enumeration of all children six years of age and under. The report shows 192 six-year-olds; 193, five; 225, four; 231, three; 260, two; 270, one, and 221 of 0 to nine months old.

The discrepancy between the number of first graders expected in September, 1959 and the number of six-year-olds of 1959 is because of the 16 1958-59 first grade failures and an estimate that only 10 of the 33 children eligible to take the readiness test in August will be ready for the first grade this fall.

The readiness test is for all children who will be six-years-of-age after September 1 and before November 1. The test will determine if they are ready for schooling or should wait another year.

Tallest man on the Harvard crew is 6-foot-7 Torrey Everett, a junior from Winnetka, Ill. He weighs 197 pounds.

State Spending Tops Income in Last Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The fiscal year which ended Tuesday was the first since 1952 in which the state spent more money than it took in, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported. The auditor's year - end report showed receipts totaling $1,445,000,000 and expenditures of $1,518,000,000.

An aide said the higher expenditures included some highway bond money left over from the previous fiscal year, and that the 73.6-million-dollar difference was not a deficit.
